Christopher Durbin's estate was appraised in Madison Co., KY. on 2 Jan 1826.

Christopher Durbin, the fourth son of Samuel Durbin and Ann Logsdon, came to Kentucky and it was through him that the Durbin lines came who settled in Madison, Hardin, Hart, Barren, Breckinridge, Meade, and finally Edmondson Counties. With a family almost grown, Christopher came through North Carolina and the Cumberland Gap and settled in an area on the Kentucky River between Lexington and Richmond in 1788-1789. Christopher was married, presumably to Margaret Parkinson Brown, but no marriage record has been found. It is reported that he was the father of six sons and six daughters, but no one can name the daughters. Most people agree that Christopher Durbin Elder died in Madison County, Kentucky, in 1825. His estate was inventoried an appraised at the Court of Madison County on Jan. 2, 1826. [Durbin-Logsdon Genealogy]

11^{2}Christopher Durbin

11^{2}Christopher Durbin, the sixth son of Samuel and Ann Logsdon Durbin, was born 13, July, 1741 near Westminster, Maryland, Frederick County and died December, 1825 in Madison County, Kentucky. It was the same year that Francis Wagers died. The Hon. Benjamin in his The Centenary of Catholicity in Kentucky and describing Christopher Durbin as the oldest Catholic family in the Covington Diocese supplied the Durbin story prepared by H. B. Shultes for The Messenger in Richmond, Kentucky in August, 1927. Mr. Shultes' narration was shown in quotation marks; any additions or remarks were shown in parentheses and interspersed through the history of Christopher's early family.

Madison County was formed in 1785 from Lincoln County. Lincoln County was an original county with Jefferson, Fayette and Logan Counties, which constituted the so-called Transylvania County in 1780, which in turn occupied approximately the present State of Kentucky. Estill County was formed in 1808.

"Christopher Durbin

The designation of the oldest Catholic family in the Covington Diocese, we are quite sure, belongs by right to the Durbins of Lee and Estill County. There may be still living generations of other families, contemporaneous with earliest Durbins in Kentucky, but they are at present outside the state or they have lost the faith. Christopher Durbin was the original Kentucky progenitor of every Durbin to be found within the state today, and, of many more who migrated, in the course of the last century to the west and north. He came from Maryland, where his fathers, of Irish blood, had been part of the soil since the early days of the Maryland colony. A tradition exists that he came into the state with Daniel Boone, but it seems to have little historical foundation. It serves, however, as an indication that he came the way of Boone, by North Carolina (and the Wilderness Road); and so soon after in the wake of Boone, that he may be considered one of the very first pioneers of the state. Christopher Durbin settled in Madison County. Webb's The Centenary of Catholicity in Kentucky in a footnote to remarks on the mission in Madison County has this to say: Christopher Durbin, with his family of six sons and six daughters, most of whom were fully grown at the beginning of the century. The earliest tax-books of Madison County are dated 1795. In the list of 'white male tithes of 21 years of age' that they contain, are the names: Christopher Durbin, Edward, John and Joseph. Four years later, 1799, the tax lists include besides, the names: Thomas, Austin, Nicholas and Mathew Durbin with acreage, cattle and horses they owned. If a deduction is permissable from the comparison of the evidence that Webb advances for the fact that Christopher Durbin had six sons, on one hand, and, the enrollment of seven names besides that of 'Christopher' in the tax lists of 1799, on the other hand, the deduction is this: that the sons of Christopher were not only full grown in 1799, but, that one of them at least, had a family at the time, which included a son over the age of 21. If this deduction be accepted as sound we must conclude that Christopher Durbin had come to a ripe age by 1799. And, of course, the more advanced we may presume his years in 1799, the farther back, in point of time, we may place his migration into the state. The fact that the tax books list most of the Durbin possessions as horses and cattle, and very little of landed property is not to be taken against the family's previous lengthy occupation of the soil. The Durbins have never been characteristically acquistive. They have been farmers and traders but, something venturesome in the blood made them better hunters and intertainers. As a consequence, they own today of the land, they were the first to people, very little more than their fathers 128 years ago. At least that holds good for that branch of the family with which I am immediately concerned."

"Exodus of Catholics from Madison County

Webb, continuing the footnote quoted above, remarks: 'With here and there an exception, the early Catholic settlers of Madison County afterwards found homes in one and another of the other Catholic settlements of the state.' This exodus, to which he calls attention, is very readily accounted for. These ancients were staunch Catholics, 'strong Catholics', as the hill phrase it. They wanted badly the ministrations of religion; but they had them only after most extensive intervals. The Catholic elements in the western part of the state were solidifying into congregations with resident priests to serve them; but, in what is now the Covington Diocese, up into 1808 there was not a single resident priest. So these Madison County Catholics sought themselves new homes among their brethren who enjoyed advantages of religion, which number and stability made possible. And the Durbins went with them.
Scott County had a church-house, 'built of boards, thirty feet by thirty feet', from about the year 1795. But there is no record to indicate that it was served by any other priest but Father Badin, who might have been called missionary-at-large to the whole state, until 1806. The church was known as St. Francis. Later, in 1820, after the congregation had acquired new property at White Sulphur, Scott County, a new church was built and christened St. Pius. It stands today, the oldest Church in the diocese. How often Father Badin found it convenient to visit the scattered flock in Madison from the vantage of his infrequent stays at St. Francis, is a matter of conjecture. We know from the fragment of a letter written by Father F. P. Kenrick, for six months pastor of St. Pius, to his successor, Father George Elder in 1827, that even at that date the pastoral visits were very infrequent. He advises in the letter that Madison County be visited four times a year. Father Kendrick was later, successively, bishop of Philadelphia and arch-bishop of Baltimore. If the Madison flock received religious attention but four times a year in 1827 after there had been a resident priest in Scott

County for nineteen years, as I said before, the wildest conjecture may be correct in guessing how infrequent the attention was before 1809 when the St. Francis congregation itself had to wait for the indeterminate visits of a traveling pastor."

"Cause of Loss of Faith Among Mountaineers

There is nothing so very reprehensible, in most instances, attached to the loss of faith on the part of our mountain folk. It is quite more readily to be considered a peculiar triumph of God's grace that any of them at all retained it. Personal contact with a priest was a phenomenon that might, among the Durbins, be looked forward to about twice in the course of a normal life time. And the Durbins were considerably more fortunate in this respect than the other primitive Catholics who located in the mountains sometime in the 19th Century. Unnumbered Irish names to be found all over the Appalachian ranges come down from a Catholic ancestry, that for generations, never saw or 'heard tell of a priest'. As a consequence their posterity knows nothing of the religion of its fathers. A personal experience of my first contact *with Aunt Mymie, (mentioned in Joseph Durbin's family), she contended that she had not been to the sacraments nor had she seen a priest for 75 years. My immediate reaction to that contention was that the old lady was drawing a long bow to a long limit; but on filling in other inter-related dates and occurrences of her life and comparing them with others which I had before established, the conviction was forced on me that the contention in point was timed to a twelvemonth. It should be put down, though, that the fact that Aunt Mymie, escaped, during the last 25 years, the searching eyes of a priest, who during that time have conscientiously herded a widely-scattered flock, is in the nature of an accident. But the fifty years previous were no accident. Some of the most estimable Durbins had their marriages 'blessed' by a priest at a time when they had a number of children to witness the blessing. Conditions simply forced on them such contingencies. John William Durbin, born on Contrary and reared at Hatton Hollow, now about 40 years of age, was baptized at the age of 15. In the interim between his birth and baptism no priest had been in the neighborhood of his home. His sister, now Mrs. Ruth Howell, of Heidelberg, was even more advanced in years when baptized. But in her case the delay was caused by inability of the priest on a previous visit to catch her. She got so far under the bed that no prodding could dislodge her. You have to catch your agile mountain goat before you make a sheep of him. Since the dawn of the century the accommodations for religious attentions have improved materially. And they will continue to improve. As a matter of fact, the time has come now when a loss of faith among the mountain folk is no longer attributable to lack of opportunities for knowledge and practice. Now, it must be called formal apostasy."

11^{2}Christopher Durbin was married to Margaret Parkinson (it was thought) prior to 1765. Mr. Webb listed the sons as Edward Sr., Joseph Sr., John D. Sr., Christopher Sr., Thomas Sr., and Philip S. Sr. The Rev. Ryan said the tax-book lists seemed to indicate the names of the sons were Edward, John, Joseph, Thomas, Austin and Nicholas. The writer used Mr. Webb's accounting. The sons of Christopher and Margaret Parkinson Durbin were Edward, Joseph, John, Christopher, Thomas, Philip and were designated as senior. There were six daughters also. There were records to indicate at least four of their daughters were married, the sons-in-law being Edward L. Shackleford, Richard Apperson, Henry B. Hawkins and Willard Goodloe.

Son of Christopher Durbin 300.0

Hello,

I have been very impressed with your genealogy of the Durbin and Logsdon families, and have found it most useful. However, I did find one error I thought you might want to fix. On ancestry.com, there is a scanned book in the Family & Local Histories section entitled History of the early settlers of Sangamon County, Illinois. There are many pages which contain useful information, but p. 273 has some that contradicts part of your tree. I will quote it below:

"DURBIN, JOSEPH, was born about 1776, in what afterwards became Madison county, Ky. He was married there to Elizabeth Logsdon, and they had twelve children in that county. He then moved his family to Sangamon county, Ill., arriving in 1829, and settled in what is now Pawnee township. Of his children--

EDWARD, SYLVESTER and MARGARET married in Kentucky, came to Sangamon county in 1828, and settled in what is now Cotton Hill township. In 1830 the whole family moved to that part of Montgomery which is now Christian county. His son--

CHRISTOPHER K., born in Kentucky in 1793, married there to Rachel Willis, and moved with his father to Sangamon and Christian county, Ill. They had thirteen children. Their fourth child, JAMES R., born June 18, 1820, in Madison county, Ky., remained with his father until April 10, 1842, when he was married to Ann Simpson. Their only living child, ANGELINE, married Thomas J. Gatton. He died April 20, 1867, leaving a widow and three children, Mary A., Andrew T., and James W. James R. Durbin died Dec. 1873, and his widow, his widowed daughter and her three children, reside near St. Bernard church in Ball township."

Elsewhere in the book, it talks about the Simpson family, but says that the Simpson daughter who married James R Durbin was named Mary. I do not believe this is an accidental coincidence, as the book refers the reader to the entry for James R Durbin for further information. At a guess, her name was Mary Ann Simpson, but that is pure supposition on my part.

You have Mary Ann Simpson married to a James Durbin, but you list the James Durbin who was the son of Joseph P. Durbin and Elizabeth Logsdon, not the grandson listed above.

Incidentally, there is also an extensive entry on the Gatton family, and apparently the Thomas J. Gatton who married Angeline Durbin had a sister named Mary M. Gatton, who married a Nathan J. Durbin. Several Gattons also married Burtles, which is a name I know is connected to the Durbins in that part of Illinois.

Another scanned book I found on ancestry.com that you might find interesting is Illinois sesquicentennial edition of Christian County history. There was a LOT of good stuff in that one. Another Durbin-Simpson marriage is mentioned in that one. You already have most of this information, but I thought you'd be interested:

"After the organization of Christian county the first marriage license was issued July 10th, 1839, to Josephus Durbin and Miss Elizabeth Simpson, a daughter of Esquire Richard Simpson, of Bear creek township. They were united in wedlock by Joseph P. Durbin, J.P."

I myself am related only distantly to this line, I think, which is a pity, as it is documented so much better than my own. :) I am descended from Nicholas Durbin, son of Samuel Durbin Sr. and Ann Logsdon and grandson of William Logsdon and Honora O'Flynn. As his Nicholas' wife was Honora Logsdon, I am descended from them at least two ways, in fact. Nicholas' son Jacob P. Durbin was my 4th great grandfather, but I have not been able to discover as yet what Jacob's wife's surname was. Her given name was Elizabeth and according to the censuses of 1850 and 1860, she was born either in Virginia (or West Virginia, of course, as it hadn't split off yet) or in Pennsylvania. I have often wondered, given the penchant for intermarriage in this family, whether she was a relative of Jacob.

I am still trying to figure out who was who in the other branches of the family, not easy given the disagreement between various genealogies I have seen. As I said, I was very impressed by yours, and thought it would be a shame to leave an error in if I could pass on some information that might help.

Respectfully,

Michael Sheridan

Tina - Your Mary Catherine "Polly" Logsdon (b. 8-25-1825 Edmunson Co., KY; d. 11-4-1909 Taylorville, IL)is the daughter of James Mathew Logsdon and Margaret "Peggy" Durbin, my gggg-grandparents. James Mathew was born about 1795 (another source says 1797) in Kentucky and died 4-4-1864 in Illinois. He was the son of William Logsdon, Sr. and Mary "Polly" Bradley. He married Peggy Durbin, the daughter of Joseph Durbin, Sr. and Elizabeth Logsdon, on 9-29-1819 in Hardin Co., KY. Peggy was born about 1802 in Madison Co., KY, and died about 1839. James Mathew's second wife was Susannah Johnson. Mary Catherine's siblings were: William Logsdon (my ancestor), (1-1-1820 to 5-5-1886), Joseph Logsdon (~1822 - ~1849), Sarah "Sally" Logsdon (1-24-1824 to 12-1911), Edward "Ned" Logsdon (b. ~1827), Elizabeth "Betty" Logsdon (b. ~1829) an infant who died about 1831, Nancy Logsdon(b. ~1833), and James "Captain Jim" Logsdon (b. ~1836). James Mathew and Susannah Johnson had a daughter, Margaret "Peggy" Logsdon, born about 1842. My source is William Jesse Durbin's "The Durbins and Logsdons and Related Families in America" c. 1979 by the Fayette County Genealogical Society. Hope this helps, cousin!

In Reply to: Re: Margaret Durbin, b: 1813, KY by Mike Durbin

Mike: I too am a descendent of the Durbin/Logsdon line.

1. Samuel Durbin/Ann Logsdon
2. Christopher Durbin/?
3. Joseph Durbin Sr/Elizabeth Logsdon
4. Phillip E. Durbin/Elizabeth Durbin
5. Margaret Durbin (1836-1922)/Wm Pierce
6. Mary (Georgetta)Pierce/Bert Stark
7. Bertha Stark/George Washington Hinton
8. Georgia Hinton/Dean R. Garrett
9. Patricia Garrett Clary/Richard Clary

The Mary Pierce/Bert Stark marriage was brief(11/4/1896, but produced 1 child..Bertha. That is my line of descent. It is listed as "no info" in the ancestor charts. Mary Pierce is listed with her second husband "Nevius"...who used to visit our home & is known affectionately as "Grandpa Nevius". My grandmother Bertha (Nanny to all) was very close to the children of the 2nd marriage. Pat Clary

3. Ann Logsdon b ca 1776 married John Simon Jr. 25 May 1792 Madison Co KY
4. John Logsdon b ca 1778 married Susannah Durbin d/o Edward Durbin and Elizabeth(believed Porter), bond was 1 may 1798, no return so I use that date.
5. Sarah Logsdon b ca 1781 married Arnold White 7 Oct 1797 (bond date)
6. Lucy Logsdon b ca 1785 married Phillip Durbin 2 August 1800(bond date) s/o Chris Durbin
7. James B. Logsdon b ca 1780 married Sarah Howard 27 August 1800 d/o Clement Howard Sr. and wife Sabina Summers,both from MD(bond date)
8. Edward Logsdon 3rd b ca 1782 married Sabina Howard 19 August 1803(real date). She is a sister to Sarah in # 7
9. William Logsdon b ca 1787 married Elizabeth Picklsimer 21 May 1807 d/o Daniel This name later turns out to be Beheimer in the History of Brown Co.Ill.
10. Mary Logsdon b ca 1788 married Randolph Hazelwood 11 June 1808(real date)
11. Nancy Logsdon b ca 1790 married Clement Howard Jr. 30 July 1809(real date) s/o Clement Howard Sr. and wife Sabina Summers, brother to # 7 and # 8
12. Lydia Logsdon b ca 1791 married Samuel Picklesimer 11 January 1811. Sam is a brother to # 9
13. Margaret Edith b ca 1792 married Joseph Durbin 11 August 1818(bond date) s/o Edward Durbin and Elizabeth Porter, grand son of Chris Durbin Sr.
14. George Logsdon born 1794 married Sarah McKenzie in Estill County KY 12 October 1818(real date)d/o John McKenzie. John's wife was also supposed to be a Porter, sister to Edward Durbin's wife Elizabeth.

Now you have the 14 children of Edward Logsdon 2nd. Not many people, if any, have this info. I want you to know you are the first person I have give this info to. So guard it like it is gold, because it is to me.
I do not care what people have written about this family, the above info is correct with out a shadow of a doubt. All you have to do is ask me for my sources.
I will leave you with two things to think about. I believe Chris Durbin Sr. married a daughter of Edward Logsdon 1st. John Simon Sr. married Ann Logsdon also the d/o of Edward 1st and the above Logsdon/Simon marriages were 1st cousins. Ann was born in 1750 in MD. She is on the 1776 census of MD and her first son was Edward Simon, you will find him in Gasconade Co. MO in 1830.
Now I guess you want Phillip's children?

Stonewall Jackson Papers / VMI Archives : TJJ to Dr. George P. Terrill, VMI Class of 1849 ("My Dear Doctor") Date: 1852 May 1 Place: Lexington, Virginia

V.M. Institute
Lexington, Va. May 1st 1852
My Dear Doctor,

Your interesting letter has been received and perused with much pleasure. But my matrimonial success as you are ere this probably aware of was a hoax. I suppose that some interested friend thought that I ought to be married and that it would be well to remind me of my duty before efforts would be too late. Frequently your intended, is to be seen with all her prepossessing fascinations. Why do you not come on? Certainly you will be here on the 4th. The weather here is at present beautiful, though for months it has been unseasonably cold.

How are you pleased with Philadelphia? What are Penrose's prospects for distinction in his profession. Of all the cities in this Union, that of the Quakers has my preference. Its public squares, magnificent edifices, it's water works & c, including that universal task which strikes the eye at all its points, must make it very interesting to all, who are only consulting pleasure.

Trueheart is now in Washington city, engaged in the Coast Survey. There is only one assistant here at present (Stewart). Our appropriation bill has not yet been acted on by the Legislature.

Judge Baldwin is not expected to recover from his recent attack. Judge Brockenbrough will probably be a candidate in place of Judge Baldwin for the Court of Appeals.

Prof. Calhoun of Washington College will leave this coming summer; his successor is so far unknown. Every thing is quiet at present in the Institute and I hope will ever continue so.

There is to be strong [st---] opposition through here this season. Let me here from you whenever a spare moment will permit.

Your sincere friend,
T. J. Jackson

[On verso; not in Jackson's hand]

Resolved that it is with feelings of the most profound regret that we have heard the announcement of the decease of our fellow student & associate Dr. [illegible] Weir; whose gentlemanly bearing & Christian deportment has served not only to endear him to all with whom he came in contact but to render him an ornament and honour to the noble profession of which he was so faithful a votary.

Resolved that we do sympathize most sincerely with the bereaved relatives & friends of his House upon whom this dispensation of Providence has fallen so unexpectedly & painfully.

Resolved that from respect to his memory we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved that a copy of the proceedings of this meeting signed by the Secy. & Pres. be forwarded to the family of the deceased & that the same be published in the Richmond & Alexandria papers.

Individuals mentioned in letter from H.C. (Hannah C.) Moore of "Pilgrim's Rest", Orange Co., Virginia, Feb. 26, 1867. →306.33

Hannah C. Moore, nee' Mallory, was the daughter of John and Fannie Morton Mallory. She married Richard B. Moore in 1841. Their marriage bond, with James B. Moore, brother of Richard B., as surety, is recorded in Orange Co., dated Sept. 3, 1841 (Orange Co. Marriage Bonds XIV, p.203). Hannah C. Moore died June 14, 1869, aged 54 (Orange Co. Death Records, 1864-1896).//

(John Mallory and Fannie Morton, parents of Hannah C. Mallory Moore, were married in 1804, their marriage bond being recorded in Orange Co., with William Morton as surety, dated Feb. 27, 1804 (OCMarB VI, p.7). Probably Fannie was the sister of Hon. Jeremiah Morton, etc. Their father, George Morton (d. testate in Orange Co., 1801) died young, and the children (6) were raised in part by their grandparents, and their uncle, William Morton of "The Hall" (Morton Hall), Orange Co. The mother of Jeremiah, etc., Jane Morton--dau. of Capt. Jeremiah Morton; she was a cousin of her husband, George--died testate in Orange Co., 1823. Jane was a sister of William of "The Hall", who took her and the children in after her husband died---NOTE: All Morton information except marriage records from genealogical chart of the Morton family compiled by O. Halsey Hill of Roanoke, VA, 1978, in possession of the Orange Co. Historical Society). There are no probate records for a John Mallory recorded in Orange Co.; 19th Census indices show several John Mallorys listed for Culpeper Co. in 1830-1850, though, and this may indicate that John resided at times in Orange, at time in Culpeper; later records for him may be in Culpeper.

Richard B. Moore, husband of Hannah Mallory Moore (see above), married a second time after Hannah's death: on Nov. 11, 1876, Richard B. Moore, 57, a widower, born and living in Orange Co., son of John Moore and Fanny Barbour (see CM1, etc. your charts), married Susan Crump, 49, born Fredericksburg, living Orange Co., dau. of John Crump and Susan Hart (Orange Co. Marriage Register 2, p.12),/ m. by C.Y. Steptoe. Richard B. Moore's will, recorded at Orange Co. Will Book 14, p.115, leaves his wife, Susan, a life estate in his property, (Richard B. apparently had no children by either marriage),/ with the estate to be managed, and later inherited, by his nephew, James S. Moore (will dated May 1, 1872, probated July 25, 1887; death record filed in Orange Co.), d. July 10, 1887, 75 years of age, of dropsy, no other information given (death records 1864-9 Deeds concerning James B. and Richard B. Moore recorded in Orange Co., which are numerous, have not been abstracted. Richard B. would seem to be, from the tone and references in Hannah's letter, the "Dickson" she mentions. No other reference to a Dick or Richard Moore could be found in the Orange Co. records for that time period.

Richard B.'s nephew, and heir, James S. Moore, married Virginia S. Sale on Mar. 3, 1876 in Orange Co. He was 27, born in KY, living in Orange Co., son of John Moore and Anna Crutchfield (marriage not recorded in Orange), she dau. of Robert C. Sale and Mary Davis, aged 22. I can not find any reference to what the middle initial stands for, but given his age, believe that this may be Stapleton (Stape).

CHART FROM ADAM THROUGH ROYAL LINES DOWN THROUGH TERRELL

That blood is thicker than water is a human proverb expressing devine truth. Family relationships are very precious. This goes back to God's eternal law. Number 1 to 67 is found in the Bible. Number 1 to number 74 taken from chart compiled by Archibald F. Bennett, M.E., for the Genealogical Society of Utah. From number 74 to 128 are from charts compiled by J. H. Tyrrell of London, England. The descent from 128 is taken from Emma Dicken Book. I completed the rest of it.

,"The Rucker Family" written in 1932 by Sudie Rucker Wood. In it tells all about Eliz/Peter. Eliz Terrill was born abt. 1731. Her parents were Robert and Mary(Foster)Terrill. Eliz must have died about 1770, because Peter remarried (according to the book)a Jemima Crawford on 1/3/1773. Peter was born 1730 and died in 1794 in Greene County, VA.

William Terrell (b. ca. 1659) who married Susannah Waters and whose descendants (including myself) are found in every part of America. It was debated for years whether this William was the son of Richmond Terrell (b. 1624, Reading, England) who settled in New Kent Co, Va., or was Richmond's brother William (who also visited Virginia). In her 1952 book ("Terrell Genealogy"), perhaps our finest researcher, concluded that this William (b. ca. 1659) was the son of Richmond Terrell. Richmond was the son of Robert, who was the son of William, who was the son of David, who was the son of Robert (d. 1545) (?)

Robert Terrill was baptized in St. Peter Parish Church on 25 Dec. 1797. His Will was written on 13 Feb. 1786 and proved in the Orange Co., VA Court on 23 Mar. 1786.

Most sources agree that Robert (b. 1697) is the son of Timothy Terrill and Elizabeth Foster. But disagreement exists regarding his grandparents. Some suggest Timothy Terrill and Dorothy Collard. Others suggest Richmond Terrill and Elizabeth Waters. Others also suggests William Terrill and Martha (?)

Edmund Terrill Rev. War Records / From Official Company Muster Rolls and Company Pay Rolls As found in the National Archives

Jan. 27, 1777...Enlisted for 3 year term. Rank is listed as Sgt. in all below records, and he is found in Capt. John Gillison's Company in all below entries, except the last, regardless of regiment or commander. Location from this enlistment date to below first muster roll is unknown, and may have been inactive until March.

Mar. 28 to Dec., 1777...10th VA Regiment, commanded by Col. Edward Stevens, who is a Brig. Gen. later in the war.

Jan. to Mar., 1778...10th VA Regiment, Commanded by Major Samuel Hawes. Maj. Hawes is later found as a Col., commanding 5th VA Regiment heroically in the Battle of Guilford Courthouse in NC in 1781, and in Hobkirk's Hill Battle after that. Edmond is listed as being mustered at Valley Forge during these dates.

April to May, 1778...10th VA Regiment, Commanded by Col. John Green, who is later found as commanding the 4th VA Regiment in the Battle of Guilford Courthouse. Edmund is still listed as being at Valley Forge during these dates, confirming that he was present in the infamous period of cold, starvation and deprivation. He did not desert, as many did.

June to July, 1778...10th VA Regiment, Commanded by Col. John Green, listed as being at Camp White Plains (NY) during those dates.

Aug, 1778...10th VA Regiment, Commanded by Col. William Russell, located at White Plains.

Sept., 1778...Same as in last entry, but located at "Camp Robinson's Farm."

Oct. to Nov., 1778...6th VA Regiment, also commanded by Col. William Russell, located at Middlebrook.

Dec., 1778 to April 15th 1779...6th VA Regiment, Commanded by Col. John Green, assigned to Camp Middlebrook, but listed as being on furlough during these dates. There was no action in the winter, and many of the men were sent home on furlough, rather than having to feed and clothe them.

May to June, 1779...Same as last entry, but listed as being at Camp Smith's Clove during these dates.

July to Sept., 1779...Same as above, but listed as being at Camp Ramapo (NJ)

Oct. to Nov., 1779...Same, but listed at Camp Haverstraw (NJ).

Dec., 1779 to Mar 1780...2nd VA Brigade, Commanded by Col. Febiger, and in Capt. John Steed's Co. This winter was as hard as Valley Forge. Edmund was apparently discharged from 3 yr. enlistment in March of 1780.

William Cornelius and Elizabeth Plunkett Terrill (310.01) had at least four children:

1. George Cornelius b. 1786 Virginia m. Jane Willis 10 Aug 1814 (daughter of John Willis (1787-1877) and Jane Dogan) John was the son of William Willis b. 22 Feb 1743 and Elizabeth Garnett. William is the son of John Willis and Elizabeth Plunkett. One correspondent (Harold Flick, 5672 Balkan Court SW, Ft. Myers, FL 33919) says "Boone County, Ky. records show George Cornelius as marrying first Jane Willis and then Elizabeth Willis. He is also shown as representing 'Mrs. Willis' when Mary 'Polly' Willis m. John Grant on 16 Feb, 1820." Mr. Flick was trying to trace the Willis line to Virginia in this 8/96 correspondence. Another reference suggests BETSEY WILLIS to George Cornelius, 11 Aug 1814, Boone Co., KY

2. Edmund T. Cornelius b. 1789 Virginia

3. Robert Cornelius 11 Nov 1795 m. 1818 Julia Mosby b. 22 APR 1798 in Petersburg, Boone KY (Ref Rootsweb / Worldconnect Rich Mather mather3@comcast.net) the Flippin Families site suggests that Julia was the daughter of Samuel and Jerusha (BOWLES) MOSBY, on 26 Sep 1774 in Cumberland Co., VA. (ref: Flippin Families From Earliest Known Generation to 1925 - http://www.homestead.com/flippinfamilies/Intro.html from the book The Bedford Family of Virginia and Descendants Thereof by Billy Ray Bedford and Luetta Bedford Kirker (1994)). However, at Rootsweb / worldconnect Gaile Breker gaile@sisp.net suggests that Julia was the daughter of David Mosby b. 04 Mar 1746/47 in Goochland Co. (and that David was the son of Samuel and Jerusha) Virginia and Elizabeth Mosby b. b: 25 Jun 1754 in Cumberland Co. Virginia

Lived in Virginia until 1806, when moved to Kentucky. Stayed there until 1819 when he moved to Missouri, where he stayed until his death. He was a farmer. His children are named in his will, dated 1849. After his first wife died, he married his brother's wife, Mary. In 1799 John bought 1200 acres next to Thomas Jefferson in Albemarle Co., VA. In 1806 They moved to Greenup Co., KY, and in 1819 moved to Howard Co, MO. He is buried along with his two wives in a private cemetary on his farm of 640 acres tht he and Rebecca had bought near Armstrong, MO., in Howard Co. Reference: "The Terrill Family" in the book, "The History of Randolph Co." (Missouri), 1884. The 1850 Howard Co., MO. census shows John age 82, b. VA, and Mary age 75, b. VA. Family descendant has a letter from granddtr stating that John had 12 children, but only 11 listed here. Perhaps one died in infancy. Under son, Joshua, John is referred to as the "late Rev. J.W. Terrill." He is found on the 1850 Howard Co. MO Census on the folowing page. He is 82 and wife Mary is 75, both b. VA. With them on the page is their son Joshua, and his family. From Boone County Court, Kentucky, Guardian & Administrator Bonds 1820-1856, page 413. John Terrill was appointed guardian of his son George's infant orphans Wm. E, Edm' and Louisa Terrill. Dated September 4, 1834. Rebecca CORNELIUS was born on 23 Jul 1773 in , Culpepper Co., Virginia. She died on 13 Oct 1845 in , Howard Co., Missouri. Rebecca married John TERRILL on 20 Apr 1789 in , Culpeper Co., Virginia. Ellsberry has same month and day but gives year of death as 1845. Also, I got email from Lou Myers saying: "According to the same Cemetery records Rebecca Cornelius died on Oct 13, 1845 at age 72 yr 2m and 24 days so I will stick with the 1845 date for her." I have therefore changed her dod to this.

✓I got the following email in 7/98 from Lucy Ficklin Dill : I must tell you that one of the other treasures I have in my home is the old spinning wheel first used by Rebecca Cornelius. My grandfather found it it an old smoke house in Kentucky so he took it home to Littleton, CO and had it restored. It was of course in his home until he passed in 1936 and kept by my grandmother until she passed in 1977. My older brother, Walter Hurd Ficklin, then had it in his home. When Walt passed suddenly in 1993, I became the grateful recipient of the treasure./

William H. TERRILL of John and Nancy Walton Terrill was born on 27 Aug 1829. He died in 1883/1887. William married Norah A. COOPER.

There is a William C. Terrill (b. Kty.) and family in the 1850 Randolph Co. MO census, but doubt that it is the same one. There is a William H. Terrill as age 41 in the Boone Co. Kty. cenus, a physician, and I think that this is that one and have put the family listed in the census under him. There was also in the family a Rebecca Cooper, age 65, most likely his wife's mother, and I have guessed and put this as her maiden name. After the above, I found a William H. Terrill who m. Jennie Cooper in Howard Co., MO 15 June 1884. The biography on his older brother George would seem to indicate that Wm. was not alive at the time of its being written in 1887. Norah A. COOPER was born on 5 May 1832 in Kentucky. She died on 17 Jan 1882 and was buried in Petersburg Cemetery in Boone Co., Kentucky. Ellsberry has tombstone as giving her name as "Norris A." They had the following children:

1. William M. TERRILL William M. TERRILL [Parents] was born in 1852 in , , Indiana. He died in 1887 and was buried in Petersburg Cem., Boone Co., Kentucky. William married Ella B. ?. She is buried next to him and is assumed to be his wife. Ella B. was born in 1854. She died in 1911.
2. John B. TERRILL was born in 1854 in , , Indiana.

Park W. TERRILL of John and Nancy Walton Terrill was born in 1832. He died in 1883/1887. Biography on brother George indicates Park was not living when it was printed in 1887. But, he was apparently still living in 1883.

Robert Quinby TERRILL of John and Nancy Walton Terrill was born on 30 Jul 1834. He died on 29 May 1867 in Boone Co., Kentucky. Robert married Catherine RIDDLE. They had seven children; four died young. Listed are the three known with birth dates which are estimated and may be off considerably. Buried in Petersburg Cemetery is a "George W. Terrill, son of Robt. & Kate, d. Nov. 24, 1864, age 4 mos" and "Robert W., son of Robt. & Kate, d. June 11, 1862" Catherine RIDDLE was born about 1835. They had the following children.

1. Nannie TERRILL was born in 1857 in , , Kentucky.
2. Lewis TERRILL was born in 1860 in , , Indiana.

   Listed as being in household of his grandparents John and Nancy Terrill in the 1870 Boone Co., Kty. Census and age 10, b. Indiana. His father had died 3 years earlier. He is also found in the same census in the household of his mother along with his two sisters, and the same age, but b. Kentucky. There is a possibility that the Lewis in his grandparents home was another grandchild. 7769
3. India TERRILL was born in 1867 in , , Kentucky.

James E. TERRILL of John and Nancy Walton Terrill was born on 29 Dec 1837. He died on 18 Jun 1859. Ellsberry has tombstone notes that he d. Oct. 1, 1859, aged 22 yrs., 11 mos.

John M. TERRILL of John and Nancy Walton Terrill was born on 29 Dec 1838. He died on 18 Jun 1851.

Joshua Cornelius TERRILL of John and Nancy Walton Terrill was born on 1 Dec 1840 in Petersburg, Boone Co., Kentucky. He died on 10 Dec 1909 in Lamar, , Indiana. Joshua married Mary Francis Sharp OSBORNE on 3 Nov 1864 in Windsor, Ontario, Canada on 3 Nov 1864. The marriage ended in divorce. Joshua had 8 children by Mary and then was divorced in 1888 in Davies Co., Ky. and later remarried. No known children by second wife. Mary Francis Sharp OSBORNE was born on 15 Nov 1842. She died on 25 Mar 1917 in , Davies Co., Kentucky. Her name is given as "Mary Francis Osborne Sharp" by Ellsberry, and she may have been married previously to a Sharp prior to marrying Joshua.

Simeon F. TERRILL, last child of John and Nancy Walton Terrill was born in 1843. He died in 1883.

All three families were from Virginia and lived in Northern Kentucky. Her son Uriel Cave married his second cousin Susan Rice and moved to Clay County, Missouri. They were members of the Bullitsburg Baptist Church in Boone County, Kentucky. Willam Cave Sr was a founder of that church.

m. George Terrill

Husband: Benjamin CAVE Birth: 1703, probably Virginia Death: 1762, Orange Co., VA
Disposition: buried Pine Stake Church Cemetery/Montebello, Orange Co., VA

Father not: Rev. William CAVE, Canon of Windsor, Chaplain to King Charles II
Mother not: Anna STONEHOUSE

A bogus genealogy by an Englishman named Tyrell gives Benjamin's parents as Canon CAVE and Anna STONEHOUSE. But Anna died in 1691, so it is impossible for her to be Benjamin's mother, and there is no indication that Canon CAVE took a second wife. The will of Canon CAVE mentions no living wife and no living sons, only daughters and one deceased son named Ralph (i.e., no son Benjamin, living or dead).

Marriage: ca. 1727, Spotsylvania Co., VA

Wife: Hannah BLEDSOE Birth: ca. 1705-10, VA Death: ca. 1770 Father: William BLEDSOE

Some sources give 1698 as her birthdate, but I don't buy it. She would have been 29 when she married (five years older than her husband) and 52 when she gave birth to Richard — not impossible, but very unusual. It's more likely she was born at least ten years later.

Benjamin CAVE may have been born as early as 1680 in the vicinity of Windsor Co., Berkshire, England. He died between 1756 and 1762 in Orange Co., VA. Some sources however report that he variously died as late as 1810 in Scott Co., Kentucky, before August 1762 in Orange Co., Virginia, or as early as 1740 in Orange Co., VA. Some also suggest that his death occurred in St. Mark's Parish of Culpeper Co., VA. Others suggest that he died in 1762 at Montebello, Culpeper County, Virginia Benjamin came from England in approximately 1725. He and Abraham Bledsoe (? See below) (his brother in law) patented 1000 acres on the Rapidan in 1728. He was a member of the Commissioners of Peace in January 1734. He was a vestryman of St Thomas Parish from 1740 until his death. He represented Orange in the House of Burgesses from 1756 until 1761. He was a Justice of the Peace for Orange County, Va., He qualified as Sheriff for Orange County, and later as a Captain and late as a Lieutenant Colonel of the Colonial Militia. (He is also referenced as 'OB' (?) of Spotsylvania County from which Orange County was formed).

Marriage 1 Hannah BLEDSOE b: 1700 in Northumberland County, Va. Others suggests that she was b. 1711 in Spotsylvania County or as early as 1698, and that the marriage occurred in 1725 in Spotsylvania County. Married: bet 1719 - 1727

(daughter of William Bledsoe b. 1676 in Cumberland Co., VA 1727 in Spotsylvania County, VA & Anne/Elizabeth ?) One reference suggests that William may have been a Captain. One reference suggests that Hannah's mother was and Elizabeth Stevens. (one source references Hannah's mother as Mary ?) Name: William Bledsoe
*Birth:*1682 in Northumberland County, Virginia
Death: 27 DEC 1769 in Brumfield, Culpeper, Va. Some sources suggest 19 Apr 1770
Occupation: Farmer
Occupation: 9 Jul 1772 first sheriff, Spotsylvania, VA

Burial: Brumfield, Culpepper Co., Virginia
Will: 27 Dec 1769, Culpepper Co., Virginia

On 5/2/1722 William was appointed sheriff of the newly formed Spotsylvania County. He served about 2 years in this capacity until the governor who appointed him was replaced. At that time the new governor surrounded himself with his own men. However, William Bledsoe's name recurs many times in the political dealings of the day to show that he remained one of those in political power. William Bledsoe took his oath as Captain in the Colonial Militia of Spotsylvania County on 9/2/1729 and was called "Captain" for most of his remaining life. Captain Bledsoe remained remarkably active mentally and physically through his long life. He was about 94 when he died.

Listed in the Spotsylvania Order Books 1724-1730 under Major Lightfoot's Command. Commission granted July 9, 1722. He was Commissioned Captain 2 Sept.1729. Was named in his father's will. Capt. Bledsoe's will was probated18 April 1770. Published in Culpepper County Will Book of 1749-1770.Was the first sheriff of Culpepper County taking the oath in 1722.

William CAVE was the son of William CAVE and Mary MALLORY. I descend from Uriel and Susan (RICE) CAVE who went to Clay Co., Missouri. William CAVE who married Margaret THRELKELD died in Boone Co., Kentucky in 1825. I have never heard of them going to Ohio but they were certainly close enough to easily travel there. I have a lot of information about Uriel and his sister Susan Mobsy CAVE who married James TERRILL and went to Randolph Co., Missouri.

Title: Tombstone Records of Boone County, Missouri Author: Evans, Mrs. E.E. and Mrs. J. Frank Thompson, comps. Publication: Columbia, MO: Privately Printed, 1934. Note: Not a complete survey of the cemeteries: needs to be compared with Elsberry and other subsequent cemetery surveys. Because it was done so early, it did located a number of stones that have subsequently disappeared. There appear to be comparatively few misreadings or typos. The following limitations were stated in the preface: "In compiling this book, every tombstone of adults in Boone County was copied where the _birth_ date was prior to 1860. Fifty-two churches and cemeteries are included and fifty-nine old family burying grounds are copied." Thus, it omitted graves of children, and must be supplemented

Penelope (Terrill) Ficklin

310.030309

272. Joseph Ficklin, Jr., son of Joseph, Sr., and Eleanor Wilson (Brown) Ficklin. An account of him appears in Appleton's Encyclopedia of American Biography. He is given a foremost place in Lowry's History of the University of Missouri, as one of those most instrumental in the upbuilding of that institution during the stormy period following the Civil War.

Their children are:

487. Octavia, who was born in Trenton, Missouri, 15 September, 1862. She graduated from the University of Missouri in 1882. 14 October, 1885, she married Willard Percy Cave, a prominent attorney of Moberly, Missouri, of which city he was thrice mayor. Octavia Cave died in Moberly, 11 October, 1892, and is buried in Columbia, Missouri. To this union were born three daughters: (a) Catherine Ficklin Cave, who in 1907 married Malcolm McClellan, resides in Jacksonville, Florida, and has two children; (b) Helen Mar Cave, who married Homer Cresap Teachenor, 11 October, 1911. They live at Shelbina, Missouri; (c) Penelope Cave, who died in infancy and is buried at Moberly.

[Mr. Cave afterwards married Miss Fannie P. Lango. They have a son, Harold Sergius Cave. All reside in Moberly.]

488. Eleanor, who was born in Columbia, 16 June, 1865. She graduated from the University of Missouri in 1885. 3 September, 1890, she married Dr. John Waldo Connaway, who has for many years been a professor in the University of Missouri, and whose valuable investigations of infectious diseases of livestock has attracted world–wide Attention. They have one daughter, Penelope Connaway, who was born 19 August, 1891.

489. John Bowman, who was born in Columbia, 26 March, 1868. He married Miss Isabelle McClement of Bates county, Missouri, 24 July, 1895, and resides in Denver, Colorado, where he is connected with one of the leading real estate firms of that city. They have one daughter: Isabelle Annette, born 11 April, 1906.

490. Thomas Allen, who was born in Columbia, 8 December, 1870. 29 September, 1897, he married Miss Ella Cochel, daughter of William and Charlotte Cochel of Columbia. They have no children. Mr. Ficklin is engaged in the land title business and has interests in Florida.

Walter Homan Ficklin of Littleton, Colorado

491. Walter Homan, the compiler of this book, was born in Columbia, Missouri, 9 April, 1873. He graduated from the University of Missouri, Class of 1895, and in 1896 moved to Kansas City, where he was instructor in biology in Central High School of that place. 29 June, 1898, he married Miss Mabel Rowlett Kenmuir, who was born 7 July, 1877.[Note: Mabel Rowlett Kenmuir is a daughter of the late James Piper Kenmuir and wife, Celia Helen (Rowlett), who were married in Kansas City, 6 February, 1876.
Mr. Kenmuir, a pioneer merchant of Kansas City, was born 6 April, 1837, at Ballinahinch, County Galway, Ireland, and died in Kansas City, 9 September, 1902, and is buried in Forest Hill cemetery of that place.
Mrs. Celia (Rowlett) Kemnuir is a daughter of the late Reverend James A. Rowlett, of North Urbana, New York, and wife, Maria Ann, daughter of John Bradford Mitchell. Mrs. Kenmuir resides in Kansas City, where she and her daughter, Nellie, are very prominent in church and club circles.

In 1901 they moved to Littleton, Colorado, where Mr. Ficklin was superintendent of schools, and was later, for several years, connected with the Wolcott School in Denver. They still reside in Littleton, and have one child: Joseph Kenmuir, a promising lad of eight years, born 5 October, 1903.

Mabel Rowlett (Kenmuir) Ficklin

492. Mary, who was born in Columbia, 22 August, 1875. She attended the public schools of Columbia, and later entered Christian College of that place. 29 December, 1897, she was married to Oscar Lee Clark, a merchant of Linneus, Missouri. They afterwards resided in St. Joseph, but Mrs. Clark's failing health compelled them to move to a milder climate. They went to Denver, but her health steadily declined. She died childless 8 July, 1905, and is buried in Fairmount cemetery in that city. Mr. Clark has since become a prominent merchant of Liberty, Missouri, where he is a member of the firm of Snelling & Clark. He recently married Mrs. Sophia Hemstreet, of that city.

A GENEALOGICAL HISTORY OF THE FICKLIN FAMILY - From the First of the Name in America to the Present Time, with some Account of the Family in England: COMPILED BY WALTER HOMAN FICKLIN / DENVER, COLO. / THE W. H. KISTLER PRESS /1912 http://www.ficklin.org/~ficklin/book/book.html

The first two or three generations of Ficklins in Virginia resided in King George, Spottsylvania, Stafford, and Culpeper counties. No returns for any of these, excepting Stafford, at the Virginia Census, 1782–85, can be found. … Nearly all the Ficklins lived in the South during the Civil War, were in the main slaveholders, and very largely cast their lot with the Confederacy. And in its armies the family was exceedingly well represented from First Manassas to the death grapple at Appomattox. As a result of the abrupt liberation of the slaves, together with depreciation of land values, confiscation and destruction of property, the conflict proved to be a great blow to the family in general and to allied families.

Joseph Ficklin, Sr., son of Jared and Eliiabeth (Dunklin) Ficklin, was born in Danville, Kentucky, in 1811. In 1831 he married Eleanor Wilson Brown. [Note: Eleanor Wilson Brown, born 6 October, 1815, was a daughter of Wm. Brown, born 22 July, 1786, died 9 April, 1855. and wife, Nancy (Cecil) Brown. born 4 February, 1791, died 11 June, 1868, both of Mercer county, Ky. William Brown was son of Wm. Brown, senior, and Isabella Scott. Nancy Cecil was daughter of James Cecil and wife, Eleanor Wilson, who died 19 June, 1844.–>From note book of Joseph Ficklin, of Columbia, Mo., 1876. (pp. 180, 181, 185)] They lived first on a farm near Salvisa, in Mercer county, but later moved to a farm between Pleasant Hill and Harrodsburg, the former a village inhabited by the Shakers. Here he engaged in wagon making and farming. His wife died 26 January, 1849, and is buried on her father's old farm (p. 181), which is about five miles from Harrodsburg, on the Lexington Turnpike. The grave is appropriately marked. To this union were born:

*272. Joseph, Jr.

*273. Mary Ellen.

*274. Sarah A.

*275. James William.

*276. Nancy.

*277. John Cecil.

*278. Catherine. Twin.

*279. Taylor. Twin.

After the death of his first wife. Joseph Ficklin, in 1851, emigrated to Trenton, Missouri. Here he married, second, Mrs. Nancy Carter, a widow with two children, John and Betsy Carter. At the outbreak of the Civil War, he was living at Linneus, Missouri, where he owned a farm and general store. These were plundered by Federal soldiers in 1861. He then started a hotel at Chillicothe, Missouri, but this was confiscated, as he was a Southern sympathizer. Then, over fifty years of age, he joined the Confederate forces of General Sterling Price (Gen. Slack's division), and became a member of the body guard of that general, serving through the early years of the War. (p. 147) He died in Columbia, Missouri, 8 December, 1871, and is buried in the cemetery there. Nancy Carter Ficklin survived her husband. His family were refugees at Quincy, Ill. She and her daughter Betsy are buried in the cemetery at Colusa, California. To this union were born: [Note: Data concerning this Joseph Ficklin was furnished by his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Newman, of Columbia, Mo.

*280. Nellie.

*282. Herbert.

for purposes of family reconstitution. The compilers noted that in many Boone County cemeteries, there were numerous old graves with no tombstones. The book is not a complete listing of all known county cemeteries. Repository: Note: Personal library. Call Number: Media: Book Page: 28

Professor Joseph Ficklin Jr. (son of Joseph Ficklin and Eleanor Wilson Brown m. 1831 Mercer Co., KY. Joseph Sr. was a wagon maker and farmer. Joseph and Eleanor had a total of eight children) was born on 9 Sep 1833 in Winchester, Clark County, Kentucky/He died on 6 Sep 1887 in Columbia, Boone County, Missouri. He was buried in Columbia, Boone County, Missouri. He married Penelope Terrill on 3 Mar 1856 in Trenton, Grundy County, Missouri. Notes: Joseph Ficklin, Jr., son of Joseph, Sr., and Eleanor Wilson (Brown) Ficklin. An account of him appears in Appleton's Encyclopedia of American Biography. He is given a foremost place in Lowry's History of the University of Missouri, as one of those most instrumental in the upbuilding of that institution during the stormy period following the Civil War./The following is from Switzler's History of Boone County, Missouri (Western Historical Company, St. Louis, 1882): "Joseph Ficklin was born in Winchester, Clark county, Kentucky, September 9, 1833; his father Joseph, Sr., was also a native of Kentucky, born in Mercer county, in 1811. When Joseph, Jr., was an infant, his father removed to a farm near the little town of Salvisa in Mercer county. and here the subject of this sketch learned to read and write. At Salvisa also he obtained his first mathematical knowledge, learning the multiplication table from the back part of an old copy book. This was before he was eight years of age. In 1841 Mr. Ficklin, Sr., removed to another farm between Pleasant Hill and Harrodsburg, the former a village inhabited by the Shakers. On this farm Joseph lived till he was eighteen years of age, employing his time at farm work and at labor in his father's wagon shop. He became a good wagon maker for one of his years. Meanwhile all of his leisure time had been devoted to the acquirement of an education, a cherished object with him, and one to be pursued under difficulties. His father was poor and had a large family to support, and the path of a poor man was not a pleasant one in Kentucky in that day. But by the time 'Joe' Ficklin was seventeen years of age, he had, almost unaided, completed common arithmetic, made some progress in Latin, and had begun the study of Davies' Elementary Algebra. "In the autumn of 1851, the Senior Ficklin removed from Kentucky to Grundy county, Missouri. Joseph accompanied the family to St. Louis, and then went down the river to New Madrid, where he taught his first school. In February, 1852, he returned to Kentucky, and lived with his grandfather (Brown), where he had the opportunity of attending a good school until in September, 1853. Up to this period he had studied, if not mastered, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, surveying, Caesar, Virgil, Horace, and had made some progress in Greek. He bought his books with money paid him by his grandfather for work done; the generous old gentleman charged him nothing for his board. September 18, 1853, he came to Trenton, Grundy county, Missouri, where his father then lived. Here he borrowed money and went to the old Masonic College, at Lexington, entering the sophomore class in all departments. At the close of the sophomore year his funds became exhausted, and, unable to procure more, he was reluctantly compelled to leave college, which he never after attended as a student. Subsequently, however, it conferred on him the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

"In the fall of 1854, he began teaching in the high school at Trenton, as principal. One of the trustees of the school, Mr. James Terrill, did not look with much favor on the selection of Mr. Ficklin. 'I prefer a married man,' said Mr. Terrill, 'I have two daughters who will attend the school, and I prefer that they be taught by one of mature years, settled in life. This Mr. Ficklin is a single man, and will be falling in love with one of his young lady pupils one of these days.' Mr. Terrill's worst fears were afterwards realized: Mr. Ficklin did conceive the tender passion for one of his young lady pupils, who was Miss Penelope Terrill, [Note: Penelope Terrill was a descendant of William Tyrrell, who settled in New Kent county, Virginia, in 1667. This is set forth on pages 26–27 of the "Genealogy of Richmond and William Tyrrell, who Settled in Virginia in the Seventeenth Century," by Joseph Henry Tyrrell, Castleknock, Twickenham, October, 1910. In 1904 the same author published his excellent "History of the Tyrrelb," which gives an account of this splendid old Norman–English family from ancient times.daughter of the prophetic trustee himself! Who says there are no such sensations as premonitions of danger? Mr. and Mrs. Ficklin were married 3 March, 1856. Mrs. Ficklin was a native of Howard county, Missouri, born 10 October, 1837. "In 1859 Prof. Ficklin accepted the chair of mathematics in Bloomington Female College, Illinois. He did not remain here long, however, and the early spring of the following year returned to Missouri. In the autumn of 1860 he took charge of the public school at Linneus, Linn county, Missouri. At the close of the term, he opened a select school, but the Civil War breaking out and continuing while he taught, his school and his income were comparatively small.

"In September, 1864, he left Linneus to accept the chair of mathematics in the Christian Female College, at Columbia. About this time a similar position was tendered him in Eminence College, Kentucky. Prof. Ficklin had been in Columbia about one year when the professorship of mathematics in the State University became vacant. Meantime he had been a contributor to mathematical departments of certain scientific journals, and had published solutions of certain intricate and difficult problems, which indicated superior and profound knowledge of mathematics on his part. One of these solutions fell under the observation of President Lathrop of the University. At a meeting of the officers of that institution to fill the vacancy in the mathematical chair, Dr. Lathrop said: 'Gentlemen, are you aware that we have the very man for the place right here in Columbia? That little fellow over at Christian College is the very man we want.' This led to investigation and the election of Prof. Ficklin to the professorship of mathematics in Missouri's greatest, noblest school. "In 1874 the 'little fellow from Christian College' received the degree of Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin. The University of Missouri had previously made him Artium Magister, or Master of Arts. (In 1884 the University of Wisconsin conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Laws.) He is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, whose sessions he attends when practicable, and before which organization he has read valuable papers. In 1869 he assisted Prof. Snell of Amherst College in a revision of the college edition of Olmsted's Natural Philosophy, himself revising the entire mathematical portion of the work. In 1874 he published, through Ivison, Blakeman, Taylor & Co., New York, his complete algebra and algebraic problems; also a key to both works. In 1881 appeared from the house of A. S. Barnes & Co., New York, Ficklin's Primary Arithmetic, Ficklin's Practical Arithmetic, Ficklin's National Arithmetic and Ficklin's Elements of Algebra, with keys to the last three named. Prof. Ficklin's mathematical works have been well received throughout the country, and his fame as a scientist is already well established in the United States, and in Europe. No man ought to be more proud of reputation honestly gained, and fairly maintained, than this 'little fellow,' and yet no man is less so. The La Place of Missouri, he is 'as common as an old shoe,' as unassuming and accessible as if he were still a country wagon–maker instead of a learned professor and philosopher, and as genial and agreeable a companion as you shall meet anywhere, 'on a summer's day.' "Professor Ficklin has been a member of the Christian church for twenty–six years. He is a member of the Masonic order. In politics he takes no very active part, but votes the Democratic ticket when he goes to the polls. He was a non–combatant during the Civil War, the only skirmishes in which he was engaged being with the 'rebellious' and refractory boys of his school at Linneus, infrequent in number and not serious in character. His father served under General Price a portion of the time during the war. "The fine telescope now in the University observatory was adjusted by Professor Ficklin, who is its chief master and most frequent visitor. He is a thoroughly practical astronomer; is at home in every department of mathematical science, whether it relates to the solution of arithmetical problems or a discussion on the processions of the equinoxes." Joseph Ficklin died 6 September, 1887, and Penelope, his wife, died 19 October, 1893. Both are buried in the cemetery at Columbia, Missouri.

Penelope Terrill was born on 10 Oct 1837 in Howard County, Missouri. She died on 19 Oct 1893 in Columbia, Boone County, Missouri. She married Professor Joseph Ficklin Jr. on 3 Mar 1856 in Trenton, Grundy County, Missouri. They had the following children:

"Mr. & Mrs. James Pyper Kenmuir request your presence at the marriage of their daughter Mabel to Mr. Walter Homan Ficklin Wednesday evening, June twenty-ninth at five o'clock First Presbyterian Church Kansas City, Mo. (1898). A very pretty wedding was witnessed by interested friends who filled the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock, when Miss Mabel Rowlett Kenmuir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Kenmuir, and Mr. Walter Homan Ficklin were married. The ceremony, performed by the Rev. Dr. Horace C. Stanton, pastor of the church, was most solemn and beautiful. The arrival of the bridal party was signaled by the playing of the march from "Lohengrin." by Mr. Bushnell, the organist, and the sweet old song, "Annie Laurie," softly accompanied the words of the service. Mr. Theodore C. Sparks, Mr. C. B. Dart, Mr. Merritt Lucas and Mr. Will Horton, the ushers, preceded the bride and groom, who were attended by Miss Helen Hoopes and Mr. J. M. Cottingham. The bride was handsomely gowned in reseda green cloth with vest of white satin and lace, and white hat with green trimmings. She carried a large bouquet of bride roses. Miss Hoopes wore a dainty white organdie over pink silk and large pink and white hat. Her bouquet was of pink roses. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to the bridal party and relatives at the home of the bride's parents on Troost avenue. The table was beautifully decorated with pink and white flowers, and the same colors prevailed in the parlors. A very handsome array of wedding gifts bore charming testimony to the number of warm friends the young couple have won. Mr. Ficklin is professor of zoology in the Central high school. WALTER HOMAN FICKLIN, Littleton, Colo. Great-grandson of Edmund Terrill, Sergeant Second Virginia Brigade; great^2-grandson of John Ficklin, private Second Virginia Regt. W.H. Ficklin age 22

The house below was the home of Joseph Ficklin,(grandfather of Joseph K.) In Columbia, Mo. It was built in 1865 on an acre and a half of ground which was then part of a cornfield adjacent on the west to the campus of the University of Missouri in which Joseph Ficklin was the head of the department of mathematics and astronomy from 1865 till his death in 1887. The main timbers of the house were of oak or rock maple. The shingles were of the "split" variety and stood for nearly forty years without replacing. There were no trees on the ground but many were planted and in time became a perfect border. The large brick buildings in the background are some of the department buildings of the University of Missouri. In this house Walter Homan Ficklin, father of Joseph K. was born April 9, 1873, and it is he who is shown sitting against a tree in the foreground. This house and ground was sold to the University of Missouri in 1894. The house was moved across 6th Street and is now used in the teachers training school. In its place was erected a handsome dormitory known as "Lathrop Hall."

Rootsweb / Boone Co., KY board / Tim Rathbun / 16 Jul 1999

Richard Parker in the Boone County Probate Records. I believe Mr. Wilks and others are confussing John Marshall, the husband of Susannah Parker as another son of Richard Parker. Under 19th century law married women did not inheirit anything, it would automatically go to the husband.

Susannah was the first of Richard's daughters who married (1808) and I question if this might be the John recorded on the deed. Nancy married Artemas Pratt in 1811, but was a widow after 1818. Eliza maried Reuben Terrill in 1822. Polly and Rebecca Parker never married. Richard Parker died in 1809. According to probate records: John Marshall signed a receipt for his share of Richard Parker's estate in the amount of $785.50. His wife Susannah's name is not even mentioned in the probate records. Reuben Terrill who married Eliza Winslow Parker also signed for his wife who again was not mentioned in the probate records. Both, Susannah and Eliza were still alive in 1835.

Richard and Hannah(Cave) Parker who were married in Orange County, Virginia on April 17, 1780. Hannah's parents were William and Mary Cave. Richard, Hannah, and Hannah's parents appear to have moved to Boone County about 1781. Richard and Hannah had a daughter Eliza (who married Reuben Terrill), Susannah (who married John Marshall), and Nancy (who married 1. Artemas Pratt and 2. Timothy Percival), their daughters Fanny, Polly and Rebecca were never married as far as I have found. They also had sons named Harvey, Arthur, Tudor, and Richard.

Found with this family in the 1840 & 1850 Howard Co.MO census. From Renee Straub 6/98: The information below is not up to date, fountain had a second wife but she did not live long enough to make any of the censuses. I happened to find it while visiting MO & looking through the marriage records. But I was unable to find any death records for any of them. The graves seem to have been on their land and many of the markers no longer exist, if anyone even knows where it is. Some of my information about Fountain Terrill

Rebecca was born in 1808 in , , Kentucky. She died before 1864. Rebecca married Fountain TERRILL about 1829. Rec'd this email 3/99 without name on it:

I am a direct descendent of Fountain's. There is a tradition in my family that my mother comes from a famous Indian Chief. A book about chiefs was in her home in 1910.

I believe that Rebeccah was the daughter of Rebeccah Galloway and Tecumseh. There is adequate evidence that they had an affair and even talked marriage. Fountain was in the direct line of passage from Lexington to Ohio where the Galloway's travelled (Boone County) Ky. Tragically a tin photo of Rebecca in full Inidan regalia has been lost.

Fountain and Rebeccaz had the following children:

F i Helen Mary TERRILL m. 12 Jul 1849 in Howard Co., MO. Pinkney BOZARTH born about 1828. (See below)

F ii Lydia Mariah TERRILL (One reference suggests that Lydia may have been born as early as 1832 ? That year of birth of Lydia who married John in question by John Terrill Wayland ?) She married John ALLIGA. He was b. ca 1830

M v James W. TERRILL He married Clarissa WRIGHT 25 SEP 1873 in , Davies Co., Missouri. She was born about 1837.

F vi Rebecca L. TERRILL was born on 21 Mar 1837/1838 in , Howard Co., Missouri. She died on 30 Jan 1900. Rebecca married Strother M. MITCHELL on 23 Aug 1855 in , Davies Co., Missouri. THE MITCHELL FAMILIES IN HAMILTON AND THE TERRILL FAMILIES IN HAMILTON

Narrator: Mrs. Kay Culp, Hamilton

Mrs. Culp was Ida Mitchell daughter of Strather M. Mitchell and Rebecca Terrill (dau of Fountain) both of whom were of Daviess county before coming to this county in 1868. They were married in Daviess County 21 Aug 1855 He was first a carpenter and then they ran the Hamilton Hotel. He died 1881 in Excelsior Springs where he had been a carpenter and ran the first hotel there. Mrs. Rebecca Mitchell died 1900. There were 5 children, S.S. Mitchell (Bud) of Excelsior Springs, Mrs. Sam Buster of Denver, Mrs. Culp , Chas. Mitchell (dead) and Tom Mitchell (dead). Tom was quite a local character, good in minstrel shows. He married a daughter of Steve Cox of this county and after his death, she became Mrs. Evans. Charles has two children Goldie and Violet, the latter being the wife of Rev. Archie Bedford of New York state.

Strather Marion Mitchell (b. 1839 d. 1883) came to Hamilton 1868 from Daviess County. He was nineteen years old when he married Miss Terrill aged sixteen of near Gallatin. They began farming at once on a rented place, neither of them knowing how to do their work well. He ploughed and she spun and wove. In 1866, he bought a small place near Grand river but the water rose and buried their crops and hopes. That ended their farming. Being a carpenter, he came to Hamilton in the building boom of 1868 to earn some money. At first most of the houses were small being all that the new settlers could afford. Two of the houses he built are still standing - the Tillman Reed home (with whom Mitchell worked) and the house of George McGill (colored). The first home of the Mitchells in Hamilton was on the rock road on the north leading from Gallatin. Wages were low. He thought he was doing fine if he got $1.50 a day. Yet when he brought home a sack of flour it cost him $3, coffee was very high then, Calico was narrow and poor in quality cost fifty to sixty cents a yard. A calico dress then was prized more than a silk now. The quilts of the time point to the high price of calico. They were small and the calico pieces were few and far between. The farmer got three cents a dozen for his eggs, seven cents a pound for middlings at Gallatin. Mrs. Mitchell often put six eggs in a batch of corn bread and twelve to fifteen in a cake.

Mr. Mitchell and his wife kept the Hamilton House (opposite the depot) about 1866 and George Lamson and his bride stayed there till they rented rooms over Kemper's store. Mr. Lamson was the railroad agent at that time. (See the Lamson paper). Mr. Mitchell later went to Excelsior Springs and built and ran the first hotel there. He and two of his children are buried in the old Hamilton Cemetery.

John Mitchell a brother of Strather came down from Daviess county with his brother to Hamilton. He had 5 children Mrs. Laura Logan (whose husband Wm. was an early blacksmith), Wood 3 of K.C. (now dead), Cassius, Robert, Alexander all of whom lived here in the 80s. Strather and John had another brother who settled in Boone county and did exceptionally well. The family came from Va.

The Terrill family is also of Daviess county coming down into Caldwell after Rebecca married Mitchell. Fountain Terrill father of Rebecca came to live with her and died 1891 after being run over by a horse. He was a strong "Campbellite" and is in Highland. His name was Fountain Terrill (named after a neighbor in Ky. where he was born 1806). Mrs. Rebecca Mitchell's brother Ollie Terrill also died in Hamilton about 1899 and is buried here. The Terrill family in antebellum days had slaves and plenty of everything both in Daviess county and in Kentucky, but the war deprived them of their property and they were in struggling circumstances when they lived here in town. The Terrills who married into the Mitchell family are kin to the Terrills who were among the earlier settlers of the Breckenridge country, even before the town was begun.

Obituary - Idaho Springs, CO paper - Friday September 1, 1961

Services Held in Denver For Sheriff of Years Ago - Albert E. Straub, 96 sheriff of Clear Creek county from 1913 to 1921, died Sunday evening in Colorado General hospital two weeks ago following a heart attack, and shortly after hie entry to the hospital he developed double pneumonia. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the chapel of the Olinger Mortuary at 16th and Boulder in Denver, with Masonic services at Crown Hill cemetery by Memorial Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., of Denver, for Idaho Springs Lodge No. 26, A. F. & A. M., of which Mr. Straub had been a member for many years. Mr. Straub was the last remaining charter member of Idaho Springs Elks Lodge No. 607. Mr. Straub was born Sept. 27, 1865, at St. Joseph, Mo. He came to Idaho Springs with his family when he was 9 year old and was educated here. He operated a livery stable and ore hauling business here for several years, and also served on the city council for five years. His livery barns were located just across the present Idaho street (which was then the C. & S. railroad tracks) from the railroad depot. The depot building is now leased by the school district and is used for the knidergarten classes. In addition to hauling supplies to the mines and ore from the mines to the mills (of which there were several) in Idaho Springs, Straub's livery business also included buggies, carriages and landaus which were rented in those days as automobiles are rented nowadays, and he also had riding horses for hire. Mr. Straub was elected sheriff of Clear Creek county in 1913, and after serving this initial term he was re-elected for three more two-year terms, serving as sheriff from 1913 to 1921. While he was sheriff he lived at Georgetown and operated a saw mill along with a coal, wood and ice business. He declined to be a candidate for the office again and shortly thereafter, in 1922, moved to Denver where he took a job as guard at the county and city of Denver jail. He remained at the jail as guard until his retirement in 1935. On his 95th birthday last year, of the hundreds of birthday greeting cards he received, one was from Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower extending him "warmest greetings and best wishes on you 95th birthday." Though it has been nearly 40 years since Mr. Straub left Idaho Springs to move to Denver, the name "Straub" still lives on in Clear Creek county thru two nephews living here, Irving Straub of Idaho Springs and George Straub of Georgetown. Mr. Straub's wife Carrie, whom he married in Denver in 1894, died four years ago. Surviving are three sons, Tom M. Straub, of Denver; Brigadier General R. J. Straub, U.S. Marine Corps (retired) of Honolulu, Hawaii; and Captain C. T. Straub, U. S. Navy (retired) of Sand Diego, Calif. He is also survived by seven grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Burial - Crown Hill Cemetery

Physician & minister. Children are listed from the 1860 Howard Co. MO census; probably were more. There is an unnamed infant born in 1860 listed in census. I really wonder if there were two Joshua W. Terrill families in Howard Co. MO., as the children listed in the 1850 census do not agree with those listed in the same county under Joshua W. Terrill in 1860. The children listed under his name here are from the 1860 census. The 1850 census lists: Malinda age 25 b. Kty., Susan age 8 b. MO, Mary E. age 6 b. MO, Rebeca age 2 b. MO, and a boarder, Thomas Allen, age 22, b. MO, a physican. Joshua's occupation is given as physician also, so this young man must have been in training with him. In those days that was often the way they learned skills, rather than medical school. The 1850 census is at:

http://www.rootsweb.com/~usgenweb/mo/howard/census/1850/167b.gif

The following from "The Huntsville Herald" may be his child, but it is not likely, as he is not age 2 on the 1860 census: Terrill, Hugh -- died 8 Sep 1873, aged about 15y, at Roanoke supposedly from heart disease, son of Joshua Terrill; THH 10 Sep 1873 (birth 1858).

There is another "Rev. J.W. Terrill"...it is Jessie, #2737. The most confusion however, is between this man and Joshua W. Terrill #2916.

Received this email 2/00: I finally had a chance to go to the Missouri State Archives in Jefferson City. As I went through their limited library I found "Missouri Baptist Biography" and in Volume VI there is a biography of Rev. Joshua Willis Terrill, M.D. 1821 - 1882. He was born in Boone Co., KY Aug 21, 1821 to John and Rebecca Terrill. There was a page or two of his travels etc. "Bob Deskin"

Marriage 1 Malinda Ann WALTON b: 9 Aug 1823 in Boone Co., Kentucky (daughter of Robert Walton and Elizabeth Holton) Married Joshua Terrill: 8 Aug 1840 Death: 10 Dec 1888, Howard Co., Missouri Matilda Ann WALTON was born in 1823 in , , Kentucky. She died in 1888. Matilda married Joshua Willis TERRILL Rev. on 8 Aug 1840. Sister of the Walton girls who married Joshua's brothers Robert and John.

Another sister married Jessie Terrill. Census of 1850 Howard Co., MO shows her name as Malinda, other records show "Matilda".

J. T. TERRILL, farmer, was born in Howard county one mile north of Armstrong, January 5th, 1854. He is a son of the late Rev. J. W. TERRILL. He was raised to manhood on the Terrill homestead on which he now resides. When the war broke out in 1861 he went with his parents to Texas, returning with them to Missouri in 1866 after the war was over. He was educated in the public schools and at Mount Pleasant College, Huntsville, Mo. He was married January 18th, 1887 to Miss LENIE EVANS, of Moberly, Mo. They have six children, 3 boys and three girls. Since returning home from Texas Mr. Terrill has resided in Howard county with the exception of 3 years that he farmed successfully in Chariton county, six miles north of Salisbury. He owns an extra good farm of 155 acres 1 mile north of Armstrong, and is in good circumstances financially. He was elected director of the Armstrong public school in April, 1895. Mr. Terrill takes great interest in educational affairs and one of his chief objects in life is to give his children a good education. He is a member of the Baptist church and the Royal Tribe of Joseph Lodge. Mr. Terrill is a man that attends strictly to his own affairs and is well liked by his fellowman.

Thomas H. DOUGLASS was born in Feb 1785. He died on 10 Jan 1847 and was buried in , Jackson Co., Mo. Thomas married Mary Ann "Mirian" TERRILL (dau of Edmund and Mary Jane Maxwell) on 12 Sep 1815. The 1830 Madison Co., Ky census, p. 165, lists Thomas Douglass, wife, 8 children, and 11 slaves. Bk. V, p. 167, Sept. 10, 1833, Thomas H. Douglass and his wife, Miram Douglass, sold 83 1/2 acres on Silver Creek to Mathias Pullins of Garrard Co., Ky for $472.82 "gold and silver in hand" and other land. The land bought in Jackson Co., MO, indicates that the family arrived there about 1826. Actually, the obituary of child Permelia, b. 1822, states that "she had traveled on horseback from her old home in Ky to Mo when whe was 14 yrs old." The 1840 Jackson Co., Mo census lists 19 persons in the household - 9 of whom were slaves in addition to Thomas, wife and 8 children. They settled along the old Osage Indian Trace, along with the surnames, Franklin, Dixon, Chiles, Hughes, Sinclair, Potts, Hudspeth, Kittle, Rice, Peace, Corn, Sanders, etc. When Thomas and Miriam died, they left 6 minor children, for whom the guardians were appointed by the court to administer, for their benefits, estate proceeds. Thomas's will was probated Oct 14, 1847, R.C. Eckles, Administrator, Bonds in the amounts of $8,000 and $12,000 were signed by J.H. Sanders and W.G. Chiles. Final settlement was April 6, 1852, Bk. 3.) Mary E. Douglas was born about 1820 in KY.. She married John B. HARRALSON on 27 Sep 1849. Mary and Husband are listed in the 1850 Census, Jackson Co., MO, with Camillus Douglass, age 8, living with them. He was the son of her deceased parents.

4.) Parmelia Douglas was born in 1822 in KY. She died in 1901. Permelia married John Bird HAMILTON in 1838.

10.) Sidney Albert Douglas b. 6 May 1836. He died on 30 May 1892. Sidney married Melinda J. GRAHAM. He joined the Confederate Army and served under Gens. Sterling Price, Albert Sidney Johnson, and Pemberton. Melinda J. GRAHAM was born on 5 Mar 1844 in Lexington,, MO. She died on 24 Jan 1926. They had the following children:

1.) Thomas Harrelson DOUGLAS was born on 27 Aug 1882. He died on 17 May 1964. Thomas married Adelia CULP on 12 Aug 1908. He received his law degree from University of MO in 1909 and had a distinguished career.

Adelia CULP was born about 1885. They had the following children:

11.) Camillus Douglas b. 1843 d. 05 JUN 1876.

12.) Oliver T. Douglas b. 1845 d. 10 JUN 1847.

Elizabeth TERRILL (dau of Edmund and Mary Jane Maxwell) was born about 1791. She married Henry P. BAFORD on 27 Apr 1807. The family bible that gives these marriage dates also says that "Elizabeth Baford m. George Banton on 2 Nov 1819."

John STONE was born about 1800. He died in 1829 in , , Kentucky. John married Mary "Polly" TERRILL (dau of Edmund and Mary Jane Maxwell) on 17 Feb 1822 in , , Kentucky. Mary was born on 16 Jun 1805 in , Orange Co., Virginia. She died in 1839 in , Clay Co., Missouri and was buried in Bethel Cem., Clay Co., Missouri. This is same Mary (Polly). I have same children of Edmund that you have. Mary was born on June 16, 1805 in Orange Co. Va.. (She was my g g grandmother) and married John Stone from Madison Co., . Ky on Feb 17. 1822. I only know of one son (my great grandfather) Edmund T Stone but am sure there were other older children. John died in Madison Co., Ky in 1829 and she died in Clay Co Mo. in 1839 and is buried in Bethel Cemetery. there. She had to be quite a lady cause she must have taken children to Mo after the death of her husband. 'E T' as her son was called was only 10 and was probably listed as orphan on some records and I have had a hard time tracing him. My infomation comes directly from information supplied by the family so I feel it is quite accurate. This is quite a family with lots of interesting accomplishments in their history. John and Mary had the following children:

1.) Edmund T. STONE was born in 1829. He is listed as age 10 and an orphan when his mother died in 1839. He was the Lincoln Co. circuit judge in New Mexico - a close friend of Pat Garrett during the reign of Billy The Kid (met "Billy" in court several times) and put 3000 sheep right next to the Chism Cattle ranch in Roswell N.M.

Sarah may have been born in Madison Co., Kentucky between 1822 and 1829? I have an Edmund (E.T.) Stone born in 1827 in Richmond, Madison Co. Kentucky. Problem was that his father died in 1829 and he was considered an orphan. Think there were other siblings but can't find any. Parents were John Stone and Mary (Polly) Terrill. Had this information from my family sources and on trip to Mo. I found him (Edward) and his wife registered in 1850 Census with another family. His mother (Mary Polly) had brought him to Missouri after the father died.

Co Kty who was listed as orphan at mother's death and I'm sure there were 2 or 3 older children - maybe listed as "orphans" also because they were under age when mother died.

Stevie Slifkin – Stone Family Forum, Genforum, Msg 413 - August 02, 1998

Lots of Stones but few connections to my search. Am hunting parents-perhaps other children of John who was born in Mad. Ky c,1798 and died in 1829 & is burried in Richmond, Md county Ky. He Md. Mary Terrill of Orange Co. Va. on Feb 17, 1822. She died in 1839 in Clay County Mo. I only know of 1 son - Edmund T.-born 1827 in Mad. Ky.(My G-grnd) but am sure there were other children born in Mad. Kty from 1822 - 1827.

1799 ---: History of Albemarle County Virginia by Edgar Woods

Terrell - ... John Terrell who it is believed was a brother of Reuben and Robert, and a son of Edmund Terrell and Margaret Willis, purchased in 1799 from Robert Carter more than twelve hundred acres in the Biscuit Run Valley. In the first years of the century, Terrell's Shop was a familiar waymark on the road from Charlottesville to Carter's Bridge. He and his wife Rebecca sold his property in Albemarle, and about 1806 removed to Greenup County, Kentucky. His mother died in 1812, and his sisters were Nancy, the wife of Thomas Henderson, Jane, the wife of Joseph Bishop, Frances, the wife of Charles C. Lacy, and Lucy.

1803 ---: History of Albemarle County, Virginia, by Edgar Woods, p 143-144 At the end of the century Joseph Bishop purchased land in various localities particularly Biscuit Run Valley and vicinity of D.S. [Three Notched Road west and thru Charlottesville]. In 1803 he bought 12 acres on the west side of Charlotesville and extending from the Staunton to the Whitehall Road. Established a tanyard at the west end of Main Street. Joseph Bishop died in 1825. Joseph Monroe Bishop b1766 d 1825 left wife m 1793 Jane (Terrell) b 1774 and nine children:

Joseph Bishop had tan yard in Fredericksville Parish, Albemarle County in 1820.

1820 --: "Albemarle, Jefferson's County, 1727-1976"; John Hammond Moore, p95-96 & 103

These sawmills produced nearly 900,000 feet of lumber each year, although most of these operations appear to have been small, part-time affairs with only one employee. The flour mills ground 126,000 bushels of wheat annually. At least one local miller thought everyone should grind his own wheat. In 1820, JOSEPH BISHOP inserted a notice in the Central Gazette stating he had operated his mill for sixteen years and had often ground for others "toll free." "During this time I had to rebuild the mill - I have again rebuilt it and will not grind on any terms whatsoever - Every person who has anything to grind, may have a mill at small expense - it wants no bed stone, only a runner, a crank, and a small frame - will go by either wind or water." The annual output of Albemarle's tanneries was valued at $15,650. JOSEPH BISHOP's twenty-five vats, located near Vinegar Hill, produced 18,000 pounds of leather per year. Two less prestigious female institutions, one at the foot of Vinegar Hill and the other at the top, also were operating in the early 1820s. A Mrs. Spencer conducted classes for girls under twelve years of age near the base "opposite Mr. BISHOP's tannery."

Walter Isbell married (Eliza) Mae Terrill, June 12, 1901. I don't know for sure but this could be the Walter Isbell that played in the Jacksboro Coronet Band, in Jack County Texas. If so I have a couple of pictures of him and the band from around the late 1890's to early 1900.

Lucy Mary Terrill
Birth: 2 FEB 1800 in Greenup County, Kentucky
Death: 9 NOV 1859 in Denton County, Texas

A paternal great-grandmother of Mary Beale (McKinsey) Bealmer, the source of much of the information I have on the Terrill line. The latter wrote a chapter on Lucy in the book, "Old Families of Randolph County, Missouri." In that book, she says, "Lucy bought land in Randolph Co. May 2, 1839." It further states that she "in 1857 went to TX with her son Robert and his wife Nancy Edna, a dtr of James McKinsey. They settled in Denton Co., where Lucy died in 1859. Her dtr. Nancy and husband, Moses Goodfellow, also went to TX and settled in Tarrant Co. Ann Beale m. Joshua McKinsey, brother of James, and lived on the Beale farm, which their son James A. McKinsey inherited. James A. m. in 1907 Stella Yager, dtr. of Thomas and Sarah (Christian) Yager of Randolph Co. Sarah (Sallie Bett) was a granddtr of William and Ann Calvin Terrill...Willam a brother of Lucy."

(?) Moses Goodfellow may be the son of either a Moses Buckalow Goodfellow, or possibly a Peter Goodfellow (?)

http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~randolphroots/GOODFELLOW_FAM.html

Moses Goodfellow was the son of Moses Buckalow Goodfellow (1755 – 1825) and Louisa Smith. Moses the son's last know residence was in Randolph Co., Missouri about 1860 where he had married Nancy Terrill Beale. Nancy and husband, Moses Goodfellow, also went to TX and settled in Tarrant Co.

Terry Goodfellow Family forum / Genforum, Message 289 July 09, 2001

Peter Goodfellow had a son named Moses who was born in Ohio in 1820. He died in Grapevine Texas - Oct 1897. He was married to Nancy T. Beale (~1829, Kentucky) in November of 1846 in Missouri. They had two daughters as of the 1850 census (Abilla?(2) and LucyAnn(5/12). In the 1870 census in Randolph County, MO: S. J. Goodfellow (37) Born Virginia and Sarah (37) wife children were James L. (16), Peter A. (8), Anna (7), Olive (3) and Anna (76) the widow of Peter from NY (Peter died in 1869 in Randolph County. I assume that S. J. was the son of Peter and Anna since she is living with his family and Peter had just passed. Perhaps the other postings can clear that up.

RIT CHRISTIAN

310.070200A

xii. George Richard Christian m. Louisa Terrill August 9, 1866
b. June 20, 1828 b. September 23, 1840
d. January 7, 1909 d. March 31, 1904

George Richard Christian was a pioneer in North Central Texas and the head of a family which has played a prominent part in the development of the cattle industry in that section of the state.

The following is an excerpt from a letter written by Eliza Ann (Ela) Christian Marks, daughter of George Richard and Louisa Christian; Nov. 30, 1945.

"I think our father inherited the old home place; at least he lived there and Uncle Jones lived near there.

"Our parents were married Aug. 9, 1866. Grandmother Christian was still living and had in their home the Swetnam children, her daughter's orphan children, so Mammy said she never knew what it was to live in a small family. She was raised in a large family, then by the time these Swetnam children were scattering out her own were coming on.

"When Pappy went to Calif. he returned by way of Central America. As far as I know after his return he was with his Mother and had charge of the place.

"I remember mammy telling of being at church, I think at old Sweet Springs and saw "Rit" Christian come leading a horse hitched to a buggy in which were his mother and another old lady. This old lady said to the girls standing by, "Now girls if you want to set your cap for a fine young man here he is, "Mammy, of course, was just a little girl then. When they were married, Mammy was 26 and Pappy 38."

Rit Christian went as a scout for an emigrant train to California in 1851. The train was made up of Wagons and he went or horse back. This was during the gold rush period. The terrible cholera epidemic was raging on the coast. There is no accurate account of the length of this stay in California. He left there with a fried, Jim Chapman, by boat and went to Central America where the two crossed by foot to the east coast. Part of the journey was made by row boat in crossing where the Isthmus of Panama now is. They took a boat to Cuba and then to New Orleans. They continued by boat up the Mississ'ppe River to St. Louis where he concluded his trip overland to his home at Moberly, Mo.

On this trip he was stricken with amoeba dysentery, of which he never entirely recovered for years.

Rit Christian served in the Civil War under Major Joe Shelby, who was the first officer under General Price, who headed the Missouri Expedition.

He was taken prisoner on a battle field following a battle. He was first thought to be dead, but the Union soldiers discovered there was still life in him and he was moved to a prison hospital (locality not known). Battle fatigue and a reoccurence of the dysentery was the cause of his illness. Jim Chapman, his buddy from Moberly, was taken prisoner at the same time Rit was. The hospital doctor noticed Christian's Masonic Emblem and asked if anyone could swear "this man was loyal to his emblems." Jim Chapman spoke up, "I can vouch for him"; where with the doctor asked "and who can vouch for you?" Chapman replied "I can examine you and you can examine me". Hospital attendants were ordered to give Christian a good bed and the best of care and "see that this man gets well!"

When he was able to travel the doctor came to him and said, "You are able to travel now, General Prices' outfit is over in that direction, you can make it by morning if you take it easy." On reaching General Prices outfit one of the first men he saw was Jim Champan. "How did you get here", he asked. Chapman replied, "The same way you did".

Later Christian and Chapman were detailed as scouts in the vacinity of their home and stopped by to eat with Christian's family. A servant reported Union soldiers in the vacinity and they jumped on their horses and dashed away but ran right through the Uniion ambush and Christian's horse was shot from under him. Chapman turned, picked Christian up on his horse and fled without harm to either. Chapman told this story to Tom, youngest of Rit's sons, when Chapman was an old man. Whether or not these soldiers were sone of the same who had captured and then set him free or not is not known, but when Tom, a small boy, asserted "You had to be an awful brave man to go back for Pappy". Chapman replied gravely, "No it didn't take bravery to go back for Rit Christian", and his implication was that Christian was not supposed to be shot. Oh! the mystery of Masonry.

Some of the great financial difficulties suffered by Christian in later life was because of a loan to his friend, Jim Chapman.

Rit Christian came with his brother-in-law, Reuben Terrill, to Texas in 1877 on a prospecting trip, but did not move to Texas until 1881. He and the Reuben Terrill Family first settled in Denton County, where the Terrill Family remained. After a year or so Rit Christian and family moved to Jack County, where they resided permanently.

It is interesting to note that altho ranching was Rit Christian's business, carpentering was really his first love. One reason the sons had to do the cow work was that their father kept so busy building, first the log house and improvements. Then in later years the two story house was built which still stands two miles west of Antelope, Texas, as a monument to all the family background.

The Carpentering talent follows up in the sons of Will Christian - most of them follow some type of construction. It also shows up in Ernest's sons one (Ben) is an Architech, while the other is an interior finisher.

Agriculture of some type has been more dominent among the sons of Paul, Jim, and Ben. One of Tom's sons followed him in Veteninary while the other is in Soil Conservation.

Take notice of how the sons through the generations have held to Masonary.

Louisa Terrill Christion would be proud in taking note of the many degrees down the line; that her aesthetic influence had carried through so well. Her older sons not having a chance for education, made up for it in their desire for good books and were always well read, well informed on civic and national issues.

Louisa Terrill Christian had many advantages of education; coming from a family of teachers, doctors, and educated forbears, she saw to it that the aesthetic side of her children's lives was not neglected.

John Christian Bacon, son of William and Betsey Bacon, was born the 40th of September, 1791.

The above copied April 1960, from an old day book of John Christian's belonging to Richard Christian of Jacksboro, Tex. The book dates back to 1770 - has family record of three generations in the back as well as birth dates of slaves children. In the front are accounts, evident that John Christian ran a general Merchandise store. We are also led to believe that John owned an estate called "Merry Oaks", because of house and fence repairs charged to "merry Oaks", Hanover County Va.

The following is taken from, "Descendants of John Sutton and His Wife Temperance Lane", compiled by Goldsborough and Fisher.

"John Christian was a resident of Hanover Co., Va. for many years prior to the Revoluton. He married Judith Pate, daughter of Jeremiah Pate and granddaughter of Matthew Pate. John Christian served as a sergeant in a Virginia regiment, and his name appears in a list of soldiers who received certificates for the balance of their full pay agreeable to an act of the Assembly passed in the November session of 1792. He was one of the Revoluntionary soldiers to whose memory a tablet was dedicated in Lexington, June 1940."

Before he married, Rit lived an adventurous life. At the age of 22, he joined a wagon train for the Gold Rush in California. Rit and others from Randolph County, Missouri traveled by horseback and served as scouts. By the time they reached California, they found an epidemic of cholera and the gold strikes about over. Deciding to return east, they took a boat from San Francisco to Panama. After crossing the isthmus on foot, they caught a boat to Cuba, then up the Mississippi River to St. Louis, Missouri.

Rit served under Generals Price and Shelby in the Missouri Cavalry during the War Between the States, and the post-war Missouri Militia. He and his family migrated to Texas in 1880. They lived for a year in Denton County, then settled on the west fork of the Trinity River on a ranch in Jack County.

Hi Fred,

I am Walter's great grandaughter. The Terrill's are the ones I was looking up. Off the top of my head I will get better dates later. The 3 children were①Vida (changed her name to Veda when she got older.) She was the oldest born Aug. 21, 1910 Then came②Max about a year later and last was③Uncle Forrest I will get middle names also. Grandmother Veda had one child my mother Frances Lee(died March 11, 2003). Uncle Max had 2 boys Walter (Wally) and Roy. Uncle Forrest had 3, he was married to a Ruby. The children are Bonnie Sue, Maxie and Robert. Any way the way the story goes is that Ollie died young. She was at a hospital got out and tried to come home, it was cold she caught pnenumonia (?) and died. The kids were very young. Uncle Forrest was only a baby. The were raised for a while by Alice Shoffner(Terrill). Grandpa Shoffner went to St. Louis to get a job and later he remarried Margreat (?) Rae Shoffner, she died I think the year I was born (1956).

Grandpa brought the kids to St. Louis and Veda (Grandmother) loved it the boys did not. Uncle Max stayed and graduated school but Uncle Forrest went back to Jacksonville, MO and that is were he raised his framily.

I noticed that the tree might go in 2 different directions. One of the Terrills had 2 different sets of parents does this mean that they are not sure which ones were his parents. I liked the set that don't go back as far because, the story we always heard was that 3 brothers can to the US (Virginia) together. It was said from Scotland. The were hunting with the king and someone shot the king with an arrow. The 3 brothers left quickly. When they got to Virginia and started going their own way they decided all three would change the spelling of their last name slightly so that when any of them saw the name they would know which brother it was. Of course Terrill was the orginal. The parents of the Terrill that stops happens to have 3 sons and a daughter. It fits better than the other parents.

As I said this is off the top of my head. I will try and get you more dates. Robert Shoffner from the Kansas City area did alot of research on the family and the Civil War, I believe.

Were are you now and were your relatives from Mo.

I made a mistake on the first posit. Walter Greenup is the son to Isacc Shoffner and Alice Terrill. Their was also 2 other boys Sam and Hugh. They were all born in Jacksonville, MO. Walter Greenup married Ollie Wedding and they had 3 children Vida, Max and Forrest. Vida was the oldest. She changed her name to Veda later. Veda had one child Frances Lee. Max had 2 boys of his own Walter(Wally) and Roy. Forrest had 3 children Bonnie Sue, Maxie, and Robert.

Alice Terrills parents
Walter Warder Terrill Borned March 28th 1842 married Melissa Hannah Jones born July 2, 1846 they had 4 children Alice,April 21, 1865, David Bartlet Dec 22, 1866 , Willliam RobertJan. 30 1869 and Nannie E April 19, 1871. They were born in Jacksonville, Missouri or Moberly. Walter Warder Terrill died Nov. 24 1929 and in buried in Union Cemetary Cair,MO Melissa Hannah Jones Terrill Died May 13, 1933 and is in the same cemetary.

Alice married Issac Clinton Shoffner(his father was Samuel Shoffner born in Clarion City, PA on 4-27-1832 he married Harriet Rothermel Caylor 12-29-1868 they moved to Missouri in March of 1869. Samuel died 4-5-1919 and is buried in Moberly. Harriet Caylor died not sure of the date and Samuel married Lucinda) Samuel Shoffner had 7 sons Issac Clinton, Amos, Willilam, Nurman, John Wesley, Damuel Isiah, and Finis Porter. Also 2 girls. Samuel's father came from Germany-John Shoffner 1805 or 1806 and died in Northumberlan City, PA Sept. 1880. They had a homestead around Ringgold Township,PA near Punxsatony, PA

So Alice Terrill married Issac Clinton Shoffner and they had 3 boys Walter Greenup, Sam and Hugh. Hope this helps. I also have some more on the Terrills

I think that Walter (Wat) Terrrill was the son of JamesTerrill and Elizabeth (Crisler) He was born in Moberly, MO Melissa Jones (Walter's wife) was born in Houstonville, KY

James Terrill (Walter's father) Moved to KY from VA and then to Randolph Co. near Moberly. He married Henrietta Conner and had 2 children and then married Elizabeth Ann and had 12 children. John Robert, Ellizabeth, Alanzo D. Benjamin, Lucretia (Crete)
Virginia (Jenny) Terrill Louisa (Lou) Terrill, Walter Terrill , Henrietta(Retta) Terrill, Ann Eliz., Susan, Josephine, Wm. H. Terrill and Thos. J. Terrill

One more thing if we are related to Sir Thomas Tyrell of Ackendon then we could be related to William I , "The Conqeror" King of England, 1027-1087.

Also Melissa Jones Terrill (mother of Alice Shoffner) Came from Green County Kentucky her mother was a Stevenson. Her father was a cousin to Adlai Stevenson first Continental governor Kentucky ever had and he later became Vice President of the US under President Cleveland.

There is an error re: Susie Ratliff in the listings of the Classes of 1908 & 1909. Susie Ratliff is the daughter of George Nelson Ratliff, who on 14 May 1874 m. Julia Josephine Terrill. Julia was born 14 Jan 1851 and died 6 Jun 1945. Both are buried in the Moberly Cemetery. Susie married Joseph Richardson and had one daughter. Susie's sister, Lola Ratliff, born 21 Apr 1876 and died 28 May 1964 on 17 Aug 1904 m. John Nicholas Wayland, born 10 May 1860, died 15 Mar 1921 (dates from Oakland Cemetery, Moberly). He is the son of John Henry Wayland and Martha Willis Dysart. There is a "J.N. Wayland" shown as deputy recorder of deeds in Randolph County at the turn of the century, and signed most of the marriage documents then, and this is probably him. He married at age 44 to a 28 year old woman and they had two children: Adah Benton Wayland and John Nelson Wayland.

General of the Army Omar Bradley m. Mary Quayle. Mary "died at Walter Reed Hospital from acute leukemia 1 Dec 1965. Her obit says that she and her husband were members of the same high school graduating class, but did not date until after he entered West Point (US Mliitary Academy). She taught school for two years in Minnesota following two years of college work there. She was graduated from the University of Missouri, Columbia, MO in 1916 and married the young Lieutenant Bradley that year. The obit mentions her daughter and five grandchildren by name. She was buried at Arlington National Cemetery. It is odd that Omar Nelson Bradley is not listed in the annual as her classmate, nor in the other classes, considerering what her obit says. Maybe he attended a different high school. Note from Ted: In General Bradley's autobiography " A Soldier's Story" he states that he graduated from Moberly High School in 1910 and worked a year at the Wabash shops before entering the Military Academy. For that reason, I have included him in the 1910 listing. He was born in Clark, Mo 12 February 1893 the son of a school teacher who died when Omar was 14. The father is buried in the Fairview Cemetery. The General died in (I believe) Fort Bliss, TX, 8 Apr 1981. General Bradley was one of 9 military officers promoted to the five star rank. The 9 were Generals of the Army Marshall, Eisenhower, MacArthur and Arnold (Army Air Force) and Admirals of the Fleet Nimitz, Halsey, King and Leahy. Bradley assumed the rank in 1950, the rest in the latter stages of World War II. Those holding the five star rank were never retired, they remained on "active duty" for life. The nine were not the highest ranking officer in the US Armed Forces; that distiction is held by another Missourian, General John Pershing who was promoted in World War 1 to the rank of General of the Armies. He could have worn as many stars as he cared to but chose four. Some historians contend that Ulysses S. Grant held that same rank first but it is highly disputed by most military historians.

Class of 1914 (1) I am not familiar with this Quisenberry. But, I have had two Quisenberry marriages into the Terrill line. On 29 Oct 1832, William QUISENBERRY m. Keturah TERRILL, who was b. 6 Jan 1815, Orange Co., VA, d. 16 Oct 1843. Keturah had two children, Reuben and Susan, and perhaps others. Keturah moved to Missouri with her mother about 1841, and died soon after arrival according to her date of death in family bible records. Both of her children are shown in the 1850 census of Osage Co., MO living in the household of Keturah's mother, Susannah Morton Terrill, wife of Reuben Terrill. Keturah's Terrill line back is: Keturah; Reuben; William; Robert; Timothy. Keturah's dtr., Susan Margaret Quisenberry, m.

William Terrill, b. 15 Oct 1838, d. 29 Dec 1907. William's line back is: William; James; William; Robert; Timothy. William and Susan were "first cousins, one generation removed." (2) I am not familiar with this one, but I have Susie REYNOLDS, and would like to know her line. She m. Vincent Calvin TERRILL, 310.070518 who was b. 12 Apr 1871 in Randolph Co., listed in the 1890 section. Vincent was the son of John Robert Terrill and Anne ROBERTS. Vincent and his brother, Henry Roberts Terrill owned "Terrill Bros. Shoes and Hosiery" store in downtown Moberly. (3) I don't know this one, but my Amanda S. WAYLAND, b. 30 Dec 1833, d. 29 apr 1923 Marceline, MO, buried Huntsville, MO, m. 24 Mar 1853 John H. ROTHWELL. Amanda was the dtr. of Fountain WAYLAND and Amanda Melvina Fitzgerald SNELL (long name and not previous marriage). I have a lot of descendants on this Fountain Wayland, who settled in Randolph Co. The 1900 census says that Amanda had ten children; only three living in 1900, who were: Adel, Charles, and Luther. The five ROTHWELL children I have from family information are: Adelaid F. "Ada"; William F.; Netta A.; Charles Logan; and Luther Walter. Marriage index incorrectly identifies him as "John Rockwell". I have more accurate information from a descendant. John H. had an older brother, James C., who married and left VA for Johnson Co., MO in 1839. John H. left sometime after the 1850 VA census for MO also and settled in Chariton Co., MO. Notes by John, Class of 1915:1. My Dad's sister, Lolah Ellen WAYLAND, b. 10 Jul 1912, m. the prominent Moberly businessman Howard H. STAMPER in 1949. He is in the 1908 class, so must have been born about 1890. She was a maiden school teacher in Moberly. She was his second wife and they had no children. She died in 1955 of colon cancer and he d. in 1959. I have heard the name Kate STAMPER in the family. I think that she may have been Howard's sister, but would like to be sure of this if anyone knows. 2. John Mounce TERRILL, b. 9 Jun 1897, d. 27 310.0705172 Mar 1985. I have his obit printed in the Moberly Index April 18, 1985. It says that John died in a nursing home in Seattle, WA, gives his birth date, and says that he was the eldest of six children (names parents). It says that he graduated from Moberly H.S., and was a student at the U. of Missouri-Columbia when he enlisted in the US Army during WW I. Says that he was a Baptist and lived in Seattle last 40 years. Preceded in death by "wife, Peg; parents and his sister, Dorothy TERRILL". "Surviving are two stepdaughters (named), one brother, Robert TERRILL of San Jose, CA; three sisters: Mary McBRICE of Annapolis, MD; Martha CABLE of Eugene, OR; and Ruth STEVENSON of Moberly; grandchildren, nieces and nephews." Body was cremated and ashes buried on the Terrill family lot in Oakland Cemetary, Moberly. His wife was "Peg", but I don't know anything about her. John was my the son of Henry Roberts TERRILL and Goldena MOUNCE. Henry is listed in the front of this 1922 year book as on the board of education. He is also listed in the class of 1889 and Goldena in the class of 1890. Henry's parents were John Robert TERRILL and Anne ROBERTS, who were parents of my grandmother, Anne Calvin TERRILL, who m. Lloyd Lowry WAYLAND. So Henry was my father's uncle and this John Mounce TERRILL was his first cousin.

Ruth TERRILL was the dtr. of Henry Roberts TERRILL and Goldena MOUNCE, and the sister of the above John Mounce TERRILL. She was b. 6 Sep 1896 and d. 13 Jun 1989. She m. Paul is in the class of 1912. 3. Louisa TERRILL was b. 3 Oct 1899 and d. 9 Aug 1994 in Corpus Christi, TX. She m. William HUGG, who was b. 28 Nov 1886 and d. Mar 1968. I corresponded with her and she had a lot of Terrill genealogy information. Louisa was the dtr. of Robert Greene TERRILL, b. 12 Oct 1866 Randolph Co., and Lena HORNER, b. 7 Nov 1866. Robert's parents were John Robert TERRILL, b. 8 Nov 1829, and Anne ROBERTS, b. 25 Feb 1839 (see # 2 above). Robert was the brother of my grandmother, Anne Calvin TERRILL, so Louisa was my father's first cousin. Notes by John, Class of 1918: 1. The Rowland surname is familiar to me, even though I do not know this man. Mary "Polly" ROWLAND, on 17 may 1810, m. Joseph WAYLAND, b. 11 Sep 1784 in VA. Robert's parents were John Robert TERRILL, b. 8 Nov 1829, and Anne ROBERTS, b. 22 Feb 1839 (see #1 above). Robert was the brother of my grandmother, Anne Calvin TERRILL, so Louise was my father's first cousin. Notes by John Clark 1918-1: The Rowland surname is familiar to me, even though I do not know this man. Mary "Polly" ROWLAND, m. 17 May 1810, m. Joseph WAYLAND, b. 11 Sep 1784 in VA. Joseph moved as a young man to KY, and then possibly MO. I think his line [illegible] I know nothing of Polly's line. Israel SHIVELY, b. 1848, d. 1912, was the dtr. of Henry SHIVELY and Hannah Ann WAYLAND. Joseph F. H. ROWLAND (possibly "Harry") and I don't know his line. Arkansas branch of the Waylands. Sarah Margaret SHORT, b. 13 Apr 1824 in MO, m. Mahlon Montgomery "Mack" PANKEY, b. 15 Dec 1819, d. 17 Dec 1909. Their dtr., Caroline Isabel PANKEY, b. 1852, m. John TERRILL, b. 9 Nov 1838, Gasconade Co., MO. John lived in Dent Co., MO most of the time and was the son of Reuben TERRILL, b. 12 Aug 1806 VA, and Lucretia "Lucy" LACY, b. 4 Sep 1806 (cousins). I have the Lacy line way back, as well as the Terrill line. Nancy SHORT, b. 9 Jan 1806 KY, d. 9 Jan 1845 Boone Co., MO, m. 2 Mar 1824 Joseph SWEARINGEN, b. 14 Sep 1798 KY, d. 20 Apr 1874 Howard Co., MO. Mary Emma TERRILL was b. abt 1902, d. aft 1985. She m. a McBRICE and was living in Annapolis, MD in 1985 when brother J.M.'s obit mentions her. Mary was the dtr. of Henry Roberts TERRILL (class of 1889) and Goldena MOUNCE class of 1890). Henry was the son of John Robert TERRILL and Anne ROBERTS. 2. John Vincent TERRILL was b. 24 Dec 1893, Randolph Co., MO and d. Aug 1987 in Amarillo, TX. Had at least two children, son and dtr. living in TX, but wife is unknown. John was the son of Robert Greene TERRILL, b. 12 Oct 1866 Randolph Co., d. aft 1946. He went by the name of "Green." His wife was Lena HORNER, and his parents were John Robert TERRILL and Anne ROBERTS. Therefore, Mary Emma & John Vincent were first cousins. Notes by John, Class of 1920: 1. The story related he had children: "Patsy", "Jenny", "Sally", that md Edmund TERRILL, Andrew, a son younger than Andrew, and a William STE(V)ENSON, who served in Waynes Campaign in 1794-95. Would like to find descendants of this family. I descend from Sally and Edmund TERRILL. Thanks, Mac

John Robert TERRILL [Parents] [scrapbook] was born on 9 Nov 1829 in , Greenup Co., Kentucky. He died on 11 Dec 1911 in Moberly, Randolph Co., Missouri and was buried in Oakland Cemetary, Moberly, Missouri. John married Anne E. ROBERTS on 15 Mar 1856 in , , Missouri.

John and wife and two small children are in the 1860 Howard Co. census at:

http://www.rootsweb.com/~usgenweb/mo/randolph/census/1860/0844.gif

He is right next to his father, William.

Then John and his mother, and many of the children are listed in the 1880 Randolph Co. Census at:

http://www.rootsweb.com/~usgenweb/mo/randolph/census/1880/105-07.gif

For some reason, Anne C. Terrill is not in the family and she would have been 6 or 7 years of age. She must have been in school or in a relative's family.

It was reported to me that in the book, "History of Randolph County, Missouri" by Alexander H. Waller, pub. 1920, son R.G. Terrill says that his father John R. came to Randolph Co. in 1854 when he was 18." Biography of John's father, William, says that William came in 1846, and that is most likely correct. John would have been about age 16-17 in 1846. Of course, he could have come a year or two after father was settled in and sent for his family.

See biography in "History of Randolph and Macon Counties, 1881" available in the Huntsville, MO. library, or at the State Historical Society of Missouri, Hitt and Lowry Streets, Columbia, MO 65201. Pgs. 433-434 of this bio. says he was born Nov. 1, 1829, but Nov. 9 is on his tombstone (I have photo).

The biography gives a lot of information on his mother and father and says that John R. worked on his father's farm in Missouri until he came of age and then went in the company of Capt. William Roberts (relative?) and others to Calif. by the overland route, and, including the time he spent in the mines, was two years making the trip. He returned in the summer of 1852 by way of the Isthmus and New York. After spending two years with his father, he made another trip to Calif., overland, taking some cattle, and returned the next year by the same route as before. Gives marriage to Anne E. Roberts and says that he established himself on a farm which had previously been owned by Jehu Pyle, and he was still living there at the time of the biography in 1881. It says that he owned 400 acres, 330 in cultivation, and a good two story house and outbuildings, 200 apple and 100 peach trees, plus grapes. Gives death of his wife and lists his nine children by name. It further states that "Mr. Terrill is a man of winning address and much ability; he takes a warm interest in all educational matters and has carried his views into practice in the training of his children; a member of the Morality Lodge, N. 186, A.F. & A.M." The "History of Randolph County", 1920, also has a short biography on John Robert. It states that he lived on the same farm in Randolph Co. for 50 years. It is said that he got the money for his farm in Missouri through making a strike in the '49 California gold rush.

Extracted from the History of Randolph & Macon Counties, MO:

"Randolph county sent forth many of her sons, some of whom were men with gray beards, and others were boys still in their teens to that far distant region, all animated with the hope that their labor, their sacrifices, and their bravery would be rewarded with an abundance of the glittering and precious ore.

Very few of these gold-hunters ever accumulated anything, and a number lost all they had, including even "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor." The persons who really gained by the gold excitement were those who remained at home and sold their produce to the infatuated emigrants. The rush which had commenced in the spring of 1849 continued until about the first of June, 1850, when the great surging tide began to abate, although belated gold-hunters continued to pass through the country for some time.

But the excitement began to die away, and those citizens who had judgment enough to resist the contagion, now settled down in quiet to pursue the even tenor of their way."

There is a large drawing of John, dated 1893, of which I have a photo.

The booklet, "Original Land Purchases of Randolph County, Missouri" by Cecille Taylor Rice, pub. by the Randolph County Historical Society has this on him:

Terrill, John R. on 17 Feb 1854 bought 40 acres (p. 48)
Terrill, John R. Jr. on 22 Aug 1853 bought 80 acres (p. 49)

It is odd that the earlier date had a later page number and I question the accuracy of the page numbers. One is this John Robert and the other may not be. They used "Jr." in those days to distinguish one from another with the same name, even though not father and son. Since our John Robert was not quite age 24 in 1853, he may have been called the "Jr."

The federal land grants show John Robert buying two lots in 1854, found at:

http://www.glorecords.blm.gov/

From the newspaper, "Moberly Daily Monitor:" "County Court -- In the case of H. T. Fort vs Jno. R. Terrell (this is the spelling used) et al, to marshal assets of the old Moberly Bank, W. H. Williams was appointed receiver of the Bank, & the time for answering is extended until the adjourned term; MDM Friday 15 Feb 1878."

That is very interesting. The only occupation that I know for this John is farmer. I can't tell from the above news article whether or not the "Terrell" person there was a director of the bank, or what. I also have a Rev. John Robert Terrill (1827-1907) in Randolph Co., but it doesn't seem that a Rev. would be involved in the bank either. The H.T. Fort mentioned is probably Henry Toulman Fort (1816-1889), who m. my g-g-grandmother, Ann Eliza Lowry (I am descended from her first husband). This H.T. Fort was a partner in a haystacker factory with Ann Eliza's son-in-law, Henry Harrison Wayland, my g-grandfather. This factory was burned down, causing them to lose everything. Family tradition is that the fire was deliberately set by a drunk that they had just fired, but it was never proven. I would love to find out more about this legal action above. It is rare to see the name spelled "Terrell" in Moberly as all of them that I know there spelled it "Terrill." This may be a man that I don't know. Then this: Terrill, John R. -- guardian of Samuel G. Terrill, Probate Court May Term, Docket 1882; MDM Saturday 22 Apr 1882 John's youngest brother, Samuel, never married and may have been handicapped.

Anne E. ROBERTS [Parents] was born on 25 Feb 1839 in , , Kentucky. She died on 9 Nov 1873 in , Randolph Co., Missouri and was buried in Oakland Cemetary, Moberly, Missouri. Anne married John Robert TERRILL on 15 Mar 1856 in , , Missouri.

Died in childbirth, bearing my grandmother, her ninth child. I have other date of death as Nov. 16, 1873, and birth date as Feb. 15, 1839. Another source has dob as Feb 5, 1839. The biography on her husband gives her date of death as Nov. 9. Both Anne and husband J.R. were members of the Missionary Baptist Church. Anne's brother, John Roberts, married her husband's sister, Sarah "Sallie" Terrill.

Later note: "Terrill, Ann -- died near Moberly 17 Nov 1873, aged about 35y, wife of John R. Terrill; THH 20 Nov 1873." This is from the Newspaper and it gives a different dod.

They had the following children:

M i William Eugene TERRILL

F ii Lolah TERRILL was born on 16 Jul 1859 in , Randolph Co., Missouri. She died in 1909.

Was a teacher. Never married. Died of TB about age 50.

F iii Emma Hannah TERRILL was born on 26 May 1861 in , Randolph Co., Missouri. She died before 1946.

Never married. I also have a birthdate of Feb. 16, 1861 on her. She may have died in Sedalia, MO. She was a school teacher, like two of her sisters and her brother William Eugene. Since she is not in sister Elizabeth's estate in 1946, I assume she preceded her in death.

F iv Elizabeth Ellen TERRILL [scrapbook] was born on 9 Dec 1862 in , Randolph Co., Missouri. She died on 7 Oct 1946 in Moberly, Randolph Co., Missouri.

I have a photo of her tombstone. My father affectionately called her "Aunt Lizzie". She never married and was a school teacher. She was a teacher in Tenn. and later Ariz. It is interesting that 3 of the 4 dtrs. never married, but were teachers.

Uncle Arthur Parker Terrill, a banker without children, left her all of his money when he died in 1915. Lizzie lived with her sister Anne (my grandmother) for about 6 years and then moved to live with Vince and Susie for the remainder of her life (another 25 years). My father, b. 1907, can remember that she taught him and his siblings manners. Lloyd Wayland (Anne's husband) finally got tired of what he considered her superior airs and she moved on.

We have a book which belonged to "Miss Ellen" of Huntsville, MO, consisting of notes from all her friends, that would be about the right date to be her. I also have her book that the funeral home puts out, which was signed by guests. It says that she "entered into rest" Oct 10, 1946 in Moberly at age 83 years. I have previously had a date of death of Oct 17, which could not be correct. I am going to change it to Oct. 7, as she was most likely put to rest 3 days after her death. I also have the papers that passed out her estate to family.

There is a letter dated 5/9/34 on the occasion of my brother Bruce Wayland's birth to his mother and father, signed "your Aunt Elizabeth." Her address was: 924 W. Washington, Los Angeles, Calif." I don't know if she lived there at death. The attached photo looks like a California beach.

M v James Milton TERRILL

M vi Robert Greene TERRILL

M vii Henry Roberts TERRILL

M viii Vincent Calvin TERRILL

F ix Anne Calvin TERRILL

? William F. ROBERTS was born on 20 Feb 1808. He died on 5 Apr 1862 and was buried in Oakland Cem., Moberly, Missouri. William married America LAND on 23 Dec 1829 in Jessamine Co., KY. Other marriages: COATES, Julia Dorothy

Received this 6/99 from Carole :

"John - I think I found a marriage date for William F. Roberts and America Land. I found them on a marriage CD I have that covers several southern states. William's last name spelled "Robards". The date listed was Dec 23, 1829 in Jessamine Co., KY."

May not be him, but

The booklet, "Original Land Purchases of Randolph County, Missouri" by Cecille Taylor Rice, pub. by the Randolph County Historical Society has this on him:

Roberts, William purchased 5 large lots from 19 Jul 1841 to 1855. Read the notes under his son-in-law, John Robert Terrill, which say that John went to the gold rush in 1849 with a "Capt. William Roberts." I wonder if it could be this man. There is a William Roberts buying Randolph Co. land 1843-1857:

http://www.glorecords.blm.gov/

At the KY biographies site there is this: "Thomas H. Roberts, farmer, P. O. Payne's Depot; was born in Scott County, Ky., Oct. 5, 1843; his father, Hillery Roberts, was born Dec. 5, 1798, and died April 25, 1874, and was a son of William Roberts, a native of Maryland, who came to Kentucky in 1790, and settled on the place now owned by T. H. Payne. The mother of our subject, was Lemira Waggoner, a native of Scott County, born Oct. 7, 1807, and died May 8, 1874." I wonder if this William could be father of our William.

America LAND [Parents] was born on 6 Oct 1809. She died on 23 Aug 1855 and was buried in Oakland Cem., Moberly, Missouri. America married William F. ROBERTS on 23 Dec 1829 in Jessamine Co., KY.

Her tombstone says she died: "aged 45y, 10m, 7d." If her dod is accurate, 23 Aug 1855, that would make her dob as being 16 Oct 1809. They had the following children:

M i John Salvage ROBERTS m. Sarah Ann Terrill

F ii Anne E. ROBERTS m. John Robert Terrill

M iii William Fountain ROBERTS

HON ARTHUR PARKER TERRILL (Randolph Co)

"History of Northeast Missouri" Edited by Walter Williams, Published by The Lewis Publishing Company, Chicago Illinois 1913 Three Volumes page 1882

[a photograph of A. P. TERRILL, with signature, accompanies the bio] HON. ARTHUR PARKER TERRILL. Among the worthy citizens of Northeastern Missouri none are more worthy of being commemorated in its annals than the Hon. Arthur Parker TERRILL, ex-judge of the probate court of Randolph county, and president of the Bank of Moberly and of the Chatauqua Association. For more than seventy years he has lived within the borders of Randolph county, during which time he has been prominent in its social, business and professional and public affairs, fairly earning a reputation for honorable dealing with his fellow citizens, to such a degree as to make his name a synonym for all that is honorable in business and correct in morals. He is descended from an old and honored family, his great great grandfather, Edmond TERRILL, being a soldier in the Revolutionary war, and the husband of a Miss WILLIS, whose father married an aunt of Gen. George WASHINGTON. Judge TERRILL was born in Greenup county, Kentucky, Feburary 15, 1838, and is a son of William and Ann (CALVIN) TERRILL. William TERRILL was born in the Blue Grass State, and moved to Missouri in 1844, settling in Randolph Co. and making his home three and one half miles south of Moberly, where he owned a valuable farm at the time of his death, although he died in Kentucky while on a visit to that state in 1870. His wife was born in 1809 in Kentucky, and died on the home farm in Randolph county, Missouri, in 1899. Seven children were born to this union: John R., who died in December, 1911, leaving a family in Randolph county; James B., died in 1857; Elizabeth, deceased, who was the wife of W. S. CHRISTIAN; Sallie, deceased, who was the wife of John ROBERTS; N. G., who lost his life while serving under Gen. MORGAN, in Kentucky, during the Civil war; Arthur Parker; and Samuel G., who is deceased. Judge TERRILL attended the common schools of Randolph county, and subsequently became a student in Mount Pleasant College, at that time located at Huntsville, and William Jewell College, at Liberty Missouri. At the age of seventeen years he commenced teaching school, and was so occupied at the time of his enlistment in General PRICE;s army, operating in Missouri. In an engagement that took place about two and one half miles south of Moberly, he was severely wounded, breaking his leg, and received an honorable discharge on account of disability, being at the time captain of his company. Returning home, he resumed school teaching and commenced the study of law, finally working in a law office until he was admitted to the bar in 1873. At that time he was engaged in the practice of his profession and was so engaged until 1908. During the same year of his admittance to practice, he was elected probate judge of Randolph county, an office in which he served with distinction for six years. In political matters the judge has always been a staunch Democrat. For a number of years he had been vice-president of the Bank of Moberly, and on the death of the president, in 1908, he succeeded to that office, which he holds at the present time. He is a consistent member of the Christian church, and is teacher of the Terrill class in the Sunday school, named in his honor. Fraternally, he is a member of the blue lodge of Masonry, and is a member of the Commercial club and president of the Chautauqua Association for 1912. In 1873 Judge TERRILL was united in marriage with Miss Josephine PATTON, who was born in Randolph county, and died here in 1902, daughter of James and Mary A. (WILCOX) PATTON. Judge TERRILL may well be termed a representative man; his has been an honorable career, and he is an example of honest perserverance winning the smiles of fortune and a handsome competency.

Capt. James W. Terrill went from Randolph County, Missoure (his native state), in the fall of 1861 to Terrant County, Texas, where he left his wife with friends and relatives outside the war zone. Although an ordained Baptist minister, he enlisted as a private in Company E, 15th Texas Cavalry (Dismounted) and later became Captain. He was captured at Arkansas Post, January 23, 1862, spent six months at Camp Chase prison (Ohio) two or more at Fort Delawre in Delaware Bay: exchanged at City Point during the Battle of Chancellorsville: immediately rushed to the defense of Richmond from a Federal Cavalry raid which threatened. Then he was sent to his old command at Wartrace, Tennessee, under Genera Bragg. Fought at Chickamauga and Mission Ridge in Pat Cleburse's Division, Granberry's Brigade.

After the defeat at Mission Ridge, Captian Terrill, with his Co. was left behind by General Cleburne to cover the retreat of the Southern Army then under Joseph E. Johnston. Capt. Terrill was told to stay until Two, perhaps three a.m. General Cleburne who expressed surprise and gratification, remarking, "I need not tell you I never expected to see you again. But I know you would stay until our Army got away.

Then came one of those long interims characteristic of the Civil War. This delay was for seven or more months during which Capt. Terrill recited almost daily to General Pat Cleburne in military tactics. He also preached in a little church within the camp Sunday and usually held other services during the week. These meeting were well attended, not for their merit, he often explained but because Company E made a point of going to hear their "Captain-parson" and bring others. The Captain often chuckled quietly as he reminiscently remarked, "The rascals saw to it I had a crowd for the honor of Company E."

It was near the close of this inerim that General Cleburne selected Capt. Terrill to carry some important papers from General Johnston in North Georgia to General E. Kirby-Smith stationed at Shreveort, Louisiana. Grant had taken the Mississippi River and the North was in possession of most of the territory that the journey covered. Moreover, the journey would have to be on foot. Gen. Johnston had said to Gen. Cleburne, "Send a man who will get there." "So I send you, if you will go", added Cleburne. I know a few details of that trip. It took Capt. Terrill three weeks waiting in the cane brakes and mosqui'os on the banks of the Mississippe to get a sure passage over. His sole food consisted of wild figs. His chance would come by night for no Southerners could cross by day that were not fully accounted for. At last a boat appeared, stealing silently along, awaiting a party. He got near enough unseen to convince himself he could trust them, then came boldly for--ward, scaring them half to death for fear he was a Yankee spy. Years after (1890) a man was detailing some experiences his father had had in the war. The most thrilling was crossing the Mississippi river about 2 a.m. for the Southern interest and the fright he had had when a voice from the cane brake called out, and a man appeared out of the earth, as it were. Capt. Terrill listened, put a few questions then said, I feel sure I was that man". Further discussion convinced them both the two incidents wre one and the same.

After crossing the Mississippi River and when almost out of the Northern territory, he was forced to go to a cabin for food, a thing he had not dared to do since he crossed the issisippi. The woman of the cabin refused because she had fed all the Yankees she was going to feed that morning. From her talk he learned some "blue coats" had left shortly before. Yet her talk might be a ruse for that section was full of Yankee sympathizers. He ordered peremptorily, letting her think what she please- that he was a Yankee spy in plain clothes. Food he had to have if the journey was to be continued. While he thundered at her a new troop rode up. They both supposed the Yankees had returned. However, the troop proved to be Confederates on the hunt for the Yankees, and they were about to do summary punishment on Capt. Terrill as a Yankee spy (for he would not show his papers except all other has failed) when he brought forth his papers to prove he was a Confederate on an important mission. He got his breakfast of pone corn bread, fat bacon, and buttermilk - the only food the woman had. The Captain always maintained that that meal was the best one of his whole life.

His papers delivered and order countersigned by General E. Kirby-Smith's Adjutant, he proceeded to Texas to ge his first glimpse of his daughter born almost two years before, while he was in prison. He returned to North Georgia in time for the Spring campaingn of 1864 between Johnston and Sherman. In the early nineties, S.A. Cunningham, then editor of the Confederate Veteran had oceassion to show to Gen. E. Kirby-Smith the countersigned order Capt. Terrill received from his adjutant. Gen. Kirby-Smith said "That is certainly my adjutant's signature and the man who brought that paper to me at that time was a brave man - none braver."

During the 1864 campaign, from May until fall, two Texas companies - Company E and one commanded by Capt. Rodes Fisher - were on Gen. Pat Cleburne's picket line. Capt. Terrill commanded that picket line one day! Capt. Fisher commanded it the next day, from May to Sept. Capt. Terrill was commanding on August 31st at Jonesboro, Georgia. Two mules were shot from under him, severalminor wounds received in shoulder and arm, then a minie ball hit him squarely in the breast. (I have that Minieball). All that day - from early morn until three o'clock - a single line of Confederates held its own against twenty-three lines of Yankees. The latter would come up line at a time and fall down or let a second come over them and fire in their turn until twenty-three lines fired before the first ones came again. How long the gray held its position he never knew. But they had not wavered at three p.m. when Capt. Terrill lost consciousness. Capt. Terrill was left for dead and reported "killed at Jonesboro". How he finally reached the Wayside Hospital in Columbus, Mississippi, is a story in itself. After weeks - maybe a month or so - an operation was performed by Dr. Robert Wendol of Murfreeshore, Tennessee. He removed two ribs and a large part of the left lung without giving any anesthetic whatever, because there was none to be had. Medicines and especially all opiates - anything to ease pain - were not allowed by the North to pass through the lines to the South. So the world has grown better.

Capt. Terrill slowly recovered. But even his wife knew naught of this until a gaunt shadow of a man unexpectedly darkened her doorway six or eight months later. Her husband back from the dead! None of his many letters had ever reached her.

Captain Terrill lived to a vigorous old age minus two ribs and half a lung, dying February 10, 1918. He spent his life teaching (often preaching, also) first in his native state of Missouri and later in Franklin County, Tennessee, to which he moved in 1876 because North Missoure proved to cold for his weakened condition.

Name: Benjamin Terrill
Birth: 7 MAY 1811 in Boone County, Kentucky Death: 17 JUN 1877 in Randolph County, Missouri
Note:

Married 1st Frances Bishop Jan 27, 1833, died during child birth with son Thomas 1835. Married 2nd in 1836 Delilah Smith Crisler . James William enlisted in civil war in Texas with the 15th dismounted Cavalry co. B. latter became captain, Mary Elizabeth, Jonas Crisler, Fannie, Anderson wood, and Luther B.

[John Terrill Wayland Jr. and Shirley Miller Wayland's web page]
The following sketch of his life was written by Elder Benjamin Terrill in 1870, seven years before his death, and sent to Elder W.L.T. Evans at the latter's request:

"I was born on the 7th day of May, 1811, in Boone County, Kentucky. My parents, Robert Terrill and Mary Lacy Terrill, a few years before my birth, emigrated from Albemarle County, Virginia. In the spring in which I was 14 years of age, I became a member of old Bullitsburg Church, not more than a mile from my home, and was baptised by Absalom Graves in a pool made for the purpose in the meeting house yard. From that time on my mind was often impressed with the subject of the gospel ministry, but not having the benefit of even a good English education, I was often forced to look at my stock of ignorance and dreaded to undertake the great and grand work.

"When 21, I was married to Frances M. Bishop, who was called to rest from toil and care two years later. On the second day of June, 1836, I was united in marriage to Delilah S. Crisler of Boone County, Kentucky. The fall (?) of the same year we immigrated to Missouri, in the company of two other brothers, James and Elder Jesse Terrill, and settled near the present site of Moberly. At the time, the closest church was Mt. Ararat in Howard County. Our first membership was with that church. Afterwards we went into the organization of the church at Huntsville.

"For convenience we joined the church known as 'Union', four miles east of our residence. By this church, in session in the house of Brother P.T. Oliver, we were ordained to the work of the gospel ministry on the second Saturday of November, 1838, by Deacons P.T. Oliver, D.D. Crews, and Elijah Burton..."

[John Terrill Wayland Jr. and Shirley Miller Wayland's web page]

James William TERRILL Dr. [Parents] was born about 1837 in , Randolph Co., Missouri. He died in 1918 in Winchester, TN. James married Lily Mott ESTILL.

Other marriages:

BRADLEY, Ariminta S. "Minta"
BRADLEY, Elizabeth Martha
HAMILTON, Nancy Coleman

Was a minister and lawyer (LLD); president of Mt. Pleasant Baptist College. Moved to Winchester, Tenn. Had two children by first marriage, three by second, seven by third wife. Each of the first three wives had a child who died in infancy, but 12 survived. The College burned to the ground on 15 Jul 1882. He apparently fled to Texas during the Civil War, for the safety of his family, as his dtr. Maude was born there. He then returned to MO after the war.

He is found on p. 68 of the Salt Spring Township, Randolph Co. MO census for 1870, age 35, occupation Pres. of Mt. P. College, b. Kty. With him are his wife, Bettie, age 25; Maud, age 8; Menta, age 2 male; and Babe, age 5 months male (b. Mar 1870). The latter's sex must be in error on the census, as this would have to be Alma, b. 17 Feb 1870. Also in the household are B. Anderson, age 11 female; Mary Bradley, age 22 female; and John McClure (McClane?) age 10 male.

In August of 1995, I received a letter from a descendant, Jean Terrill Thurman Baker of 361 Iliaina Street, Kailua, Hawaii 96734. She enclosed a photograph of this family and the 11 children who had been born at the time of the photo. I have corrected the information I have on this family to agree with hers as she is more knowledgeable on the line.

The 1882 book mentioned under his father says about James "He is now, we believe, at Winchester, Tenn."

This was found in the Moberly Daily Enterprise newspaper:

"Terrill, James -- President of Mt. Pleasant College, has sold his property in Huntsville & will remove to Winchester, TN; Rev. S. A. Beauchamp succeeds him; MDM Wednesday 23 Feb 1876."

"Terrill, J. W. -- & family, left Huntsville for their future home at Winchester, TN, on Saturday last; MDM Wednesday 21 Jun 1876."

See note under his father about him. Lily Mott ESTILL was born about 1850. She married James William TERRILL Dr..

Benjamin TERRILL Rev. was born on 7 May 1811 in , Boone Co., Kentucky. He died on 17 Jun 1877 in , Randolph Co., Missouri. Benjamin married Delilah Smith CRISLER on 2 Jun 1836. Other marriages: BISHOP, Frances M. Benjamin Was a Missionary Baptist preacher. Information from "Quayle Family History", by Alexander Jack Quayle. Another source gives his marriage to Frances as being on 27 Jan 1833. Ancestor of Mary Quayle, first wife of Gen. Omar Bradley They are found on the 1850 Randolph Co. MO census with the first four of the children listed here. A booklet issued by the Bank of Moberly in 1916 called "Moberly Fifty Years Ago - And Today" has a photograph of him with the caption: "A preacher of the Baptist faith, who, according to some of the older residents, preached the first sermon in Moberly in the dining room of the Tate Hotel. After the organization of the Baptist church, he was its first pastor." See "History of Randolph and Macon Counties, Missouri", 1884 for further data on Benjamin and other children of Robert Terrill. See also "Christian - Terrill Genealogy" by Inez Christian Doshier, pp. 64-67. She says that Ben was the "handsomest man around, tall, slender, graceful". Although the middle of 13 children, he was the leader, and his mother, brothers and sisters all referred perplexing questions to him. Eventually, all of his siblings, his mother, and his "Uncle Jack" with his sons and their families followed him to Missouri and settled in Randolph County. They were raised so intimately that "the families grew up in such a way that they hardly knew which were their own parents or own brothers and sisters". I have a photo of a group of church women (including my grandmother Terrill) celebrating the Centennial (100th) of the First Baptist Church in Moberly. There is a photo of him on the wall.

The Mt. Pleasant Assoc. book mentioned under his father and his brother Jesse says Benjamin "was a native of Boone County, Kentucky. He was born on the 7th of May 1811. A few years prior to his birth his parents Robert and Mary Terrill, emigrated from Albemarle County, Virginia...In the fall of 1836, in company with his wife and two brothers, James and Jesse Terrill, removed to MO and settled in Randolph Co., near the present town of Moberly, where he remained until a few years ago...In the 22nd year of his age he was married to Miss Frances M. Bishop, who only lived about three years after this event. On the 2nd day of June, 1836, he was again married to Miss Deblah S. Crisler, of Boone County, Kentucky. The fruit of this marriage was four sons and two daughters reared to maturity, all of whom became members of the Baptist denomination. One of the sons, James W. Terrill, is a Baptist minister of great power. He was a former president of Mt. Pleasant Baptist College, and greatly distinguished himself at the head of that institution. In fact, as a teacher he was, perhaps, the most remarkable man we ever saw in a school-room. He is now, we believe, at Winchester, Tennessee. Another and younger son, A.W. Terrill, for several yearss distinguished himself as president of Hardin College at Mexico, MO....In the fall of 1836, in company with his wife and two brothers, James and Jesse Terrill, he removed to Missouri and settled in Randolph County, near the present town of Moberly, where he remained until a few years ago...At the time of his settlement in Randolph County, he found but few Baptists in that part of the state. He traveled and preached the gospel from Monroe to Schuyler County, and aided in forming a number of churches in this vast field. The following may be named: Shiloh (now Moberly), Sweet Spring, Higbee, Thomasville, Union, and Mt. Vernon in Randolph County; Hickory Grove and Oak Grove in Monroe County; Mt. Salem and Ten Mile in Macon County; and Highland in Schuyler County. Within the territory of many of these churches, Eld. Terrill was the first Baptist minister who preached the gospel and baptized. Bro. Terrill was a sound gospel preacher, and though not a man of 'great learning,' was possessed of a natively strong mind. His views of 'salvation by grace' were very decided. He held no mixed views, but had clear conceptions of Divine truth. He was a genial compainion in the social circle, and always delighted to talk about Christ and his salvation. A little more than 4 years before his death, his health began to fail. His disease was what is properly known as 'heart disease.' He gradually became more and more feeble, but endured it all without a word of complaint...He died at the residence of his son, President A.W. Terrill of Mexico at 9 PM, June 17th, 1877; and his remains were carried to his old home, one mile from Moberly, and buried in the family graveyard. One word more. The Terrill family of Central Missouri have been a power for doing good; not supassed, probably, by any family in the state."

The local newspaper had a piece which may or not be on him: "Terrill, Benjamin {Rev.} -- sick with typhoid fever for several days, doubtful if he will survive; THH 4 Jan 1872; recovering; THH 8 Jan 1872"

The booklet, "Original Land Purchases of Randolph County, Missouri" by Cecille Taylor Rice, pub. by the Randolph County Historical Society has this on him:

Terrill, Benjamin on 16 Feb 1848 purchased 40 acres and on 14 Aug 1851 purchased 40 acres. Found on pp 49 & 48 of the original book. May possibly be another Benjamin Terrill.

From the "Moberly Daily Enterprise Monitor":

Benjamin TERRELL, Rev., was born on 7 May 1811 in , Boone Co., Kentucky. He died on 12 Jun 1877 in , Randolph Co., Missouri. Benjamin married Delilah Sarah CHISLER on 2 Jun 1836. I have a copy of the newspaper article sent to me by Bob Deskin 3959 Sarita Park, Fort Worth, TX 76109. It talks about the "Marriage Book" donated to the MO State Historical Society by the Rev.'s granddtr, Mrs. John M. (Maud S.) Hopkins. I have a note that Maud had no children. It says:

His first marriage ceremony , as listed in the book, stated:

"I hereby certify I united in Matrimony Thomas M. Galbreath and Manervy Delaney (Delansy?) on the 11th day of April, 1839, each of Randolph Cty., MO. Benjamin Terrill."

His second ceremony was that in which he performed the marriage of Thompson C. Kimbrough and Nancy H. Jackson, August 15, 1839 and the third of Charles H. Deskin and Elizabeth Burton, March 1840. The fourth also was a Deskin, Mose H. Deskin and Ann Beale being married by him on October 22, 1840.

His last recorded ceremony in the book is that on July 7, 1861, the marriage of William Lay and Bunisa Peviney.

Elder Benjamin Terrill was a brother of William Terrill, who was the grandfather of Henry Green and Vince Terrill and Mrs. Lloyd Wayland of Moberly. He has many other more distant relatives now living here...

The following sketch of his life was written by Elder Benjamin Terrill in 1870, seven years before his death, and sent to Elder W.L.T. Evans at the latter's request:

"I was born on the 7th day of May, 1811, in Boone County, Kentucky. My parents, Robert Terrill and Mary Lacy Terrill, a few years before my birth, emigrated from Albemarle County, Virginia. In the spring in which I was 14 years of age, I became a member of old Bullitsburg Church, not more than a mile from my home, and was baptised by Absalom Graves in a pool made for the purpose in the meeting house yard. From that time on my mind was often impressed with the subject of the gospel ministry, but not having the benefit of even a good English education, I was often forced to look at my stock of ignorance and dreaded to undertake the great and grand work.

"When 21, I was married to Frances M. Bishop, who was called to rest from toil and care two years later. On the second day of June, 1836, I was united in marriage to Delilah S. Crisler of Boone County, Kentucky. The fall (?) of the same year we immigrated to Missouri, in the company of two other brothers, James and Elder Jesse Terrill, and settled near the present site of Moberly. At the time, the closest church was Mt. Ararat in Howard County. Our first membership was with that church. Afterwards we went into the organization of the church at Huntsville.

"For convenience we joined the church known as 'Union', four miles east of our residence. By this church, in session in the house of Brother P.T. Oliver, we were ordained to the work of the gospel ministry on the second Saturday of November, 1838, by Deacons P.T. Oliver, D.D. Crews, and Elijah Burton..."

Commenting further on Elder Terrill and her family, Mrs. Hopkins says:

"Elder Terrill preached much in his youth in Kentucky. My father, James W. Terrill, moved from Randolph County, Missouri, in 1876 to Winchester, Tenn, where lived a retired Mississippi-Ohio river captain. One day after hearing my father preach, Captain Dunfield said:

"'You remind me strangely of someone I knew long ago when you talk.' Then in a moment the captain ejaculated: 'Now I know. It is a young preacher in Boone County, Kentucky, who used to preach at Bullitsburg and whom I heard whenever my

HERE RESTS IN HONORED GLORY

ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETERY

Best known of more than one hundred national cemeteries in the United States, Arlington's green slopes shelter veterans from every war that has involved the nation. Over 275,000 servicemen and their family members rest on the 624 acres of Virginia land across the Potomac River from the Lincoln Memorial. About 24 burials are conducted every weekday.

All who are remembered here have this in common: service to their country. To each one, no matter what rank or station, whether decorated hero or unknown, belongs a place of honor. Though the majority of those buried here have been servicemen, many women who have contributed to our Armed Forces are also interred within these hallowed grounds.

The granite and marble markers and memorials reflect the tides of American history, beginning in the Civil War and cresting since in times of armed conflict. The sinking of the USS Maine at Havana harbor, Cuba, in 1898 touched off the Spanish-American War and added graves of sailors near the salvaged mast of the ship. Like that of the troops who served under his command, the headstone for John J. Pershing, World War I's General of the Armies, is a simple standard-issue marker. World War II is represented by such distinguished persons as Medal of Honor recipient Audie Murphy and General George C. Marshall. From Korea and the Vietnam jungles came the remains of other veterans to this sacred spot. Cape Cod stones frame the eternal flame at the grave of President John F. Kennedy, where the words "with history the final judge of our deeds . . . " are quoted from his inaugural address.

By tradition, American military cemeteries developed from the duty of commanders on the frontier and in battle to care for their casualties. When Civil War casualties overflowed hospitals and burial grounds near Washington, D.C., Quartermaster General Montgomery Meigs proposed in 1864 that 200 acres of the Robert E. Lee family property at Arlington be taken for a cemetery. "The grounds about the mansion," Meigs wrote, "are admirably adapted to such a use."

Burials had in fact begun at Arlington before the ink was even blotted on Meigs's proposal. By war's end, 16,000 graves filled the spaces close to the house. Heir to the property Custis Lee sued the government for disputing his claim to ownership. After the Supreme Court ruled in Lee's favor, Congress paid him $150,000 for title to the land.

From the portico of Arlington House, known today as the Robert E. Lee Memorial, an official national day of remembrance was proclaimed in 1868 as a day to decorate the graves of the fallen. The Memorial Amphitheater, one of the most visited sections in Arlington National Cemetery, is now the setting for these observances. Flags bedeck the circle of arches around marble benches and the podium where leaders pay tribute to those who served. Presidential wreaths are presented each Memorial Day and Veterans Day.

Just east of the amphitheater, visitors attend the timeless rituals of honor at the Tomb of the Unknowns. Here a sentinel of the Third U.S. Infantry maintains the vigil around the clock. The sentinel paces 21 steps down the mat before the tomb, pauses 21 seconds, and returns. The changing of the guard takes place every hour (or half-hour from April through September). "Here rests in honored glory an American soldier known but to God" reads the inscription on the sarcophagus of the World War I soldier entombed here in 1921. Joining their comrade, unknown servicemen from World War II and Korea, lie in crypts beneath slabs flush with the terrace paving.

A funeral with full military honors is a dignified and moving occasion. An honor guard accompanies the American flag–draped coffin drawn by matched horses. A band plays solemn marches while muffled drums beat the slow cadence for the procession. Before the remains are lowered, a squad fires three rifle volleys and a bugler blows the long notes of "Taps." Finally the guard folds the flag and presents it to the next of kin.

Symbols of human struggle and sacrifice, the stones and monuments of Arlington National Cemetery are steeped in history. In their time, all buried here, taken from many walks of life, creeds, and races, answered their country's call. Their stories will be remembered.

Note: Note: AMERICAN GENERAL DURING WORLD WAR II General Bradley was one of the commanders of D-Day, the invasion of Normandy. 1949--He was made Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff 1950--He became the fourth man to achieve the rank of 5-star general. He published his memoirs, A Soldier's Story (1951). "The way to win an atomic war is to make certain it never starts." --Gen. Omar Bradley

Father: John Smith Bradley b: 15 FEB 1867 in Randolph County, Missouri
Mother: Sarah Elizabeth 'Bessie' Hubbard b: 13 APR 1875 in Randolph County, Missouri

Born on the Hubbard farm near Clark, Missouri, on 12 February 1893. Omar was the first child born to his parents, he also had a brother named Raymond Calvert who was born Feb 1900 and died Jan 18, 1902. Omar's father died when he was only 14 years old. At about this time, the family moved into Moberly where Omar later met Mary Quayle, whom he would later marry. Omar was in the Moberly High School Class of 1910

When he graduated from high school he didn't have the money to attend college. His plan was to work at the Wabash Railroad Co. to earn money and then attend college (U. of MO) when he had some money saved. A friend suggested he try to get into West Point - there was some sort of program at the time where districts were allowed to select and send one person to West Point every 4 years. By a stroke of luck the law got change to allow a district to send a person every 3 years which allowed Omar Bradley to apply for the opportunity. He was however only the backup to another candidate and did not have high hopes of getting in. He and the other candidate had to take a test to qualify - the other candidate had been studying almost a year for the exams and Omar had been out of school for almost a year with very little time to prepare. In the end he agreed to take the exams only if the railroad would give him the time off and a free pass to the town he had to get to. The examination was held at Jefferson Barracks in St. Louis, Missouri. As things turned out the other candidate did not pass the exams and Omar was on his way to West Point and the beginning of his Army career. he received an appointment from Missouri Congressman William M. Rucker to enter the Military Academy in the fall of 1911. His nickname at West Point and for the rest of his career was "Brad". One of his classmates was Gen. Eisenhower.

He graduated from the United States Military Academy, 1915, in a class of 162. He has won high honors in athletics, excelling in baseball and football. He was a star fielder and hitter on the army ball team for two years and played center on the football team. "In his studies Bradley also has done well. At the last publication of the general merit roll he stood No 43. He was 28 in engineering, 78 in law, 124 in Spanish, 37 in ordnance, 43 in philosophy, 32 in chemistry, 90 in drawing and 66 in conduct. He was No. 9 in military drill regulations, and had only 49 demerits for the year just passed. Bradley finished a respectable 44th in his graduating class. He was commissioned a second lieutenant, and assigned to the 14th Infantry, June 1915 married Mary Quayle, 1916 (deceased 1965) performed troop duty in the west, 1915-1919 was promoted to first lieutenant, July 1916, to captain, May 1917, and to temporary major, June 1918 was on Reserve Officer Training Corps duty in Minnesota and South Dakota. At the end of World War I, Omar Bradley considered himself a professional failure because he had spent the war in the United States while his contemporaries had distinguished themselves on the battlefields of France. His gloomy self-assessment was premature.

In 1919-1920 he was instructor in mathematics at West Point, 1920-1924 and reverted to grade of captain, 1920 and 1922, and was returned to major, 1922 and 1924 graduated from the advanced course at the Infantry School at Fort Benning, 1925 served in Hawaii with both the 19th and 27th Infantry, 1925-1927, and was in charge of National Guard/ and Reserve affairs for the Hawaiian Islands, 1927-1928. Graduated from the Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, 1929 was instructor in tactics and weapons at the Infantry School, 1929-1933 graduated from the Army war College, 1934 was instructor in tactics and plans and training officer at the United States Military Academy, 1934-1938 was promoted to lieutenant colonel, June 1936 was chief of the Operations Branch, G-1, war Department headquarters, 1938-1940 was assistant secretary of the General Staff, 1940-1941 was promoted to temporary brigadier general, February 1941 was commandant of the Infantry School and set up the Infantry Officer Candidate Program, 1941-1942 was promoted to the temporary ranks of major general, February 1942, and lieutenant general, June 1943 successively commanded the 82d and 28th Infantry Divisions, 1942-1943 was personal representative in the field for the commander of the North African Theater of Operations, 1943 commanded II Corps in operations against Axis forces in North Africa and Sicily, 1943 was promoted to permanent ranks of brigadier general September 1943 and major general, September 1944.

The Supreme Allied Commander, Gen. Dwight D. EISENHOWER, chose him to command the 1st U. S. Army, the American contingent in the invasion of Normandy in June 1944. He commanded the First Army and the 12th Army Group in the invasion and final campaigns of western Europe, 1944-1945. By the spring of 1945 this group contained 4 field armies, 12 corps, 48 divisions, and more than 1,300,000 men, the largest exclusively American field command in U.S. history. Bradley was proudest of Operation Lumberjack, the campaign he launched to reach t he Rhine after the German counteroffensive.

He was promoted to temporary general, March 1945, a rank and date made permanent in January 1949 was temporary administrator of veterans affairs, 1945-1947 was chief of staff of the United States Army, 7 February 1948-16 August 1949 responded to the National Security Act of 1947 by initiating a study of Army organization that led to appointment of a vice chief of staff and two deputies and to consolidation of technical services under the director of logistics, administrative services under the director of personnel and administration and financial and management functions under the comptroller of the Army was the first chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, 16 August 1949-16 August 1953.

He was promoted to General of the Army, September 1950 was first chairman of the Military Staff Committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, 1949-1950. He married Esther Dora Buhler, 1966. A mild mannered man with a high-pitched voice, General Bradley created the impression less of a soldier than of a teacher, which he actually was during much of his early career in the Army Yet he earned a reputation as an eminent tactician and as a "soldier's soldier, a general with whom lower ranks could readily identify". Quiet, polite and popular with enlisted men, Bradley has often been contrasted with his more blustery colleague, General George S. Patton, Jr. Omar Bardley was quoted as saying: " In war there is no prize for the runner-up ". In his memoirs, A Soldier's Story (1951), Bradley sharply criticizes British Field Marshal MONTGOMERY for "misrepresentation of U.S. and British roles in the German winter counteroffensive named the Battle of the Bulge. In 1953 he became chairman of the board of the Bulova Watch Company. While attending an Army Association meeting in New York City, he died on 8 April 1981. Buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

✓1. Katherine "Katie" QUAYLE was born about 1861. She died before 1925. Katherine married John SETLIFF. The 1880 Randolph Co. MO census has Sarah A. Terrill age 17 in the family, but does not list Katie. She may have married by that time. She is given as deceased in book written by brother Alexandros in 1925.

✓2. Charles L. QUAYLE was born on 15 Sep 1867 in , , Mexico. He died on 4 Nov 1902 in Moberly, , Missouri and was buried in Oakland Cem., Moberly, Missouri. Charles married Eudora "Dora" GOODFELLOW on 18 Jun 1891. Was Chief of Police in Moberly. Listed in his obit as pallbearers are four sons of John R. Terrill (#2699), (his 2nd cousins): James M., Henry R., Green, and Vincent. Also a Gene Terrill. Charles was always known as Charley. He was at one time a deputy U.S. Marshall. He died of TB. I have a news article on his life. Charles married Eudora "Dora" GOODFELLOW who was born in 1870. She died in 1939 and was buried in Oakland Cem., Moberly, Missouri. Their two children were:

1. Mary Elizabeth QUAYLE was born on 25 Jul 1892. She died on 1 Dec 1965 in Walter Reed Hosp, Washington, D.C. and was buried in Arlington Cem.. Mary married Omar Nelson BRADLEY Gen. on 28 Dec 1916 in Columbia, Missouri. Mary died at Walter Reed Hospital from acute leukemia. Her obit says that she and husband were members of the same high school graduating class, but did not date until after he entered West Point. She taught school for two years in Minnesota following two years of college work there. She was graduated from the University of Missouri, Columbia, in 1916 and married the young Lieutenant Bradley that year. The obit mentions her daughter and five grandchildren by name. She was buried at Arlington Cemetary.

2. Jane QUAYLE was born on 8 May 1895. She died in Sep 1966 in John Day, Oregon. Jane married Wayne STEWART. There is a card in a scrapbook, signed "Jane Q" and I wonder if it is this one. It says "Our son has done outstanding work at Stanford Univ. and is now in Med. Electronics in San Francisco...lives alone and likes it He has a summer home in the Blue Mts. of Oregon, so we see him a week or two during the warm weather It is lovely up in the pines & we keep our favorite horses there and still love to ride them...we will be back in May after another week with sister...but just now we are headed for Greece after 2 wks on this lovely island. E. Phelan tells of you; she's such a dear. I was so pleased that you wrote me such a good letter on your typewriter & I think you are a wonder in your 90th year I loved hearing of each of your five children and the grand- children too. I know they are a group to be proud of & how I loved each of them when they were little fellows & Cousin Annie was so sweet to let me rock the baby...I always felt I was one of her immediate family." This card was written from Palma, Mallorca where she was apparently visiting her sister and her husband, Gen. Bradley. It must have been written in 1965 as my grandfather Lloyd, to whom she was writing, was 90 that year. SSDI shows a Jane Stewart who was b. 8 May 1895, d. Sep 1966 in John Day, OR 87845, SS card issued in Oregon in 1951. This is likely to be her as there is a Wayne Stewart, b. 22 Nov 1896, d. Dec 1974 in John Day, OR, card issued in Oregon in 1951. This is likely to be this couple, so I will usee these dates.

Hi Fred,
I saw on Rootsweb where you posted the info I sent you. Thanks for the credit.

I do have one correction for you. Jonas Crisler Terrill's daughter was named Mary, not May.
If you want some more tie-ins, here are a few more:

Mary Ebersole Fagley (James W. Terrill, Jr.'s wife) was the daughter of William H. Fagley, a Union cavalry captain and Maria A. Fee (who, in turn, was the daughter of the leader of the Underground Railroad movement in Clermont County, Ohio. In Robert's house on the Ohio River, which still stands, escaped slaves spent their first night of freedom). William H. Fagles was born September 16, 1833, in Cincinatti, Hamilton, Ohio. He died September 15, 1904, in Amelia, Clermont, Ohio, but unfortunately we have not been able to locate his grave. Maria was born in May 1842, in Clermont County, Ohio, and died September 16, 1911. William and Maria also had a daughter named Katherine Fagley, born about 1868.

If this type of info is of interest to you, let me know and I'll be happy to share it with you. I try very hard to document everything I can, and I strive for accuracy.

ROOOTSWEB ID: I161 COL. William QUAYLE / Birth: 18 OCT 1825 in Kirk, Michael Parish, Isle of Man Death: 1901

QUAYLE, WILLIAM (1825-1901). William Quayle, Civil War^{qv} officer, was born in Kirk Michael Parish, Isle of Man, on October 18, 1825. His parents came to America when he was a child and settled in Ontario County, New York. He attended Canadagua Academy. He went to sea for nearly ten years and eventually became a captain. He later traveled in Europe and Asia and was broken in health upon his return to America. He moved to Texas in the 1850s and settled near Grapevine, where he served as a district clerk, district judge, and chief justice of Tarrant County. He was opposed to secession;^{qv} nonetheless he organized Company A, Ninth Texas Cavalry, the first company to leave Tarrant County for Confederate service.

> The Ninth Texas Cavalry consisted of about 1,000 mounted volunteers from Grayson, Tarrant, Hunt, Hopkins, Cass, Red River, Titus, and Lamar counties. they gathered about 15 miles northwest of here at Brogdon Springs on October 2, 1861, and were mustered into confederate service under Colonel William B. Sims. Under Colonel Sims the Ninth Cavalry saw considerable action in the Indian Territory of present-day Oklahoma before joining General Ben McCulloch's army in Arkansas in late January 1862. Colonel Sims was wounded during the battle of Pea Ridge in March 1862 and Lt. Col. William Quayle took command. The Ninth Cavalry numbered 657 men in late spring 1862 when they marched to Mississippi to join the Third, Sixth, and Twenty-Seventh Texas cavalry units and formed a cavalry brigade under the command of Lawrence S. Ross. For 15 months Ross' brigade saw almost continual action in Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, and Georgia. They participated in the assault that captured and burned the federal gunboat "Petrel" in 1864. By November 1864 the Ninth Cavalry consisted of only 110 men. Ross' brigade surrendered to federal troops at Jackson, Mississippi, on May 4, 1865. Veterans of Ross' brigade formed an association in 1878.
> At one point William was in command of the 1st military district of Texas. This would be the last major modifications to frontier defense by the State of Texas during the Civil War. The First Frontier District was commanded by William Quayle. The First was the northern most of the districts and was made up of the present day counties of Archer, Baylor, Clay, Cooke, Foard, Hardeman, Haskel, Jack, Jones, Knox, Montague, Palo Pinto, Parker, Shackelford, Stephens, Throckmorton, Wichita, Wilbarger, Wise and Young.

As lieutenant colonel he commanded the regiment at the battles of Pea Ridge and Corinth but soon returned to Tarrant County in poor health. Shortly after Quayle's return he won election to the state Senate and took his seat in February 1863. He served as cochairman on the Joint Committee on Frontier Protection and worked to push through the bill to transfer the Frontier Regiment^{qv} to the Confederate Army and to form the state-supported Frontier Organization.^{qv} In January 1864 Governor Pendleton Murrah^{qv} appointed Quayle major in command of the First Frontier District, the nineteen organized counties on the state's northwestern frontier. From headquarters at Decatur, Quayle struggled throughout the spring and summer to maintain order in this, the most complex and difficult district to manage in the entire frontier organization. As well as patrolling against Indian raids, his men were kept busy searching for deserters, draft dodgers, and renegades. By summer's end, with his health failing, Quayle requested to be relieved. His replacement, James Webb Throckmorton,^{qv} took command of the district on December 13, 1864. Quayle served briefly as Throckmorton's second-in-command until March 1865, when poor health required him to take a furlough. At the end of the war Quayle joined other Confederate officers and moved to Mexico for several years. He returned to Texas briefly, then moved to Missouri, where he lived the remainder of his life. He first married Sarah Henderson of Mississippi, then Elizabeth Terrill of Missouri. Quayle died at his home in Moberly, Missouri, on August 8, 1901.

Hi Fred,
This is what I have on Jonas Crisler's descendants:

Jonas Crisler and Elizabeth Price had 10 (or 11) children.
Their 4th child was a daughter, Delilah Smith Crisler.
Delilah Smith Crisler married Benjamin Terrill on June 2, 1836, in Boone County, Kentucky.
They had 6 children:
James William Terrill, born March 16, 1837. James fought for the Confederacy with a Texas cavalry unit.

✓Jonas Crisler Terrill married Sophia Smith Crisler (she was the daughter of William Smith, but was adopted by a Crisler) on May 3, 1864 (not 1863, I've seen the marriage record), in Boone County, Kentucky/ Jonas died December 31, 1898, in Covington, Kenton County, Kentucky. He was a prominent surgeon in the Covington area, active in politics and was a Democratic elector to the convention that nominated Grover Cleveland for President. He and Sophia, who died on October 26, 1931, are buried along with their daughter, Mary (Frances) Terrill Bagot, in Highland Cemetary, Ft. Mitchell, Campbell County, Kentucky.
✓Jonas and Sophia had 4 children:

He was a lawyer who practiced in Covington, Kentucky. He married Mary Ebersole Fagley on February 15, 1900, in Covington. They had one daughter, Muriel Joy Terrill, born August 2, 1901, and they divorced about a year later. /

Mary Frances Terrill died February 1, 1934, in Glendale, Los Angeles County, California, where she was visiting her daughter.

That's a chuck of what I have. Let me know if you want to know any more about any of these people or others related to them.

Hi Don,

Here is the information I have on Jonas Crisler Terrill. He is buried along with his wife, Sophia Smith Crisler Terrill and daughter, Mary Terrill Bagot, in Highland Cemetary, Ft. Mitchell, Campbell County, Kentucky. The cemetary is located off of I-75 and Dixie Highway, approximately 100 yards east of the interstate. Jonas was born in Randolph County, Missouri, on November 11, 1843 (the year per his headstone) and died on December 31, 1898, in Covington, Kenton County, Kentucky. I think the incorrect date and location of death came from a misreading of the information on his father, Benjamin Terrill, who died in Mexico, Randolph County, Missouri, on June 17, 1877.

Jonas was a very prominent surgeon in the Covington, Cincinatti area. He practiced in Boone County, Kentucky after moving there from Missouri, before moving to Covington. He was active in politics and was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention that nominated Grover Cleveland for President.

Sophia Smith Crisler Terrill was born in 1848 in Kentucky (probably Boone County), the daughter of William Smith and was adopted by (I believe R.H.) Crisler. She died on October 26, 1931.

They had four children, Benjamin Addison Terrill, born about 1867, James William Terrill, Jr. (named after his uncle, Jonas' brother), born about 1869, S. Smith Terrill, born about 1871, who was listed in the 1930 U.S. Census as living in Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee and had never married, and their only daughter, Mary Frances Terrill, born in 1872, who moved to Anderson, Madison County, Indiana in 1901, to live with her uncle Dr. Luther Terrill. She married a prominent attorney and Madison County Circuit Court judge, Charles K. Bagot.

I've included scans of the headstones (I had them cleaned last month and I think they came out looking very nice). I'll scan Jonas' obit and picture of his drawn likeness in my next email.

I hope this helps. Thanks for the information you sent me.

Hi Don,

I am going this week to San Antonio, Texas, to see if I can find James William Terrill, Jr., who was mentioned in his sister's obituary in 1934, as living there. I'm going to be doing more Terrill research on S. Smith and Benjamin Addison one of these days and I'll be happy to share my findings with you.

I'm including the scans of Jonas Crisler Terrill's picture (drawing) and obit.

Talk to you soon.

with grief and fear ter.

Bessie Walker, a beautiful 17-year-old brunette, has until recently resided with her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gooding, of Monmouth Street, Newport.

Several days ago a circus visited Newport and Miss Bessie, in company with several young lady friends, visited it.

While there they met a young man whose name could not be learned.

He seemed very much smitten with Miss Bessie, and she with him, and a friendship was immediately formed that could not be broken by parental objection. He made several engagements with her, which were kept without the knowledge of her parents.

Last Wednesday night she returned home about 9:30 o'clock, but did not say where she had been, but it afterward turned out that she had been with her lover.

Thursday night she was again out, but nothing strange was thought of this until it began to get late and she did not return.

Her mother waited in vain for her to come home, but when morning dawned she was still missing.

Thinking that perhaps she was with some of her friends, no immediate search was made for her.

But when she did not return all of yesterday, her parents became almost distracted with fear, and immediately began a search.

No one could tell them anything of her whereabouts, and as a last resort the above mentioned advertisement was inserted and the police notified.

Miss Bessie has enjoyed an enviable reputation heretofore, being considered a model girl.

She was a favorite among all her associates and was idolized by her parents.

The only known cause for her strange actions is that she did not like her aunt who is living with them.

On several previous occasions she has threatened to leave home unless her aunt would treat her with more consideration.

The bride returned to her home on an early train Friday morning, but the groom is said to still linger somewhere in Cincinnati.

The groom is [illegible] and the bride [illegible] years old. Why they desired their marriage kept secret for a time was not learned.

LUZADER'S LOAN

To Be Investigated By Newport Officials.

MISS RAUCH GOT HER MONEY BACK FRIDAY.

OFFICER'S STRONG DENIAL.

Substantiated by Two Signed Statements From Miss Rauch.

The reports concerning a loan secured by Officer Fred Luzader, of the Newport police force, from Miss [illegible] Rauch, an acquaintance of the officer has resulted in Mayor Blitz ordering an investigation of the affair.

Luzader denies that he wrote the love letters attributed to him and signed [illegible] and "Fred" and in support of [illegible] has an affidavit from the young lady. She explains that her visit to Chief Bennett was for the purpose of having that official press Luzader to pay the [illegible], the amount loaned him to take a trip to the Nashville Exposition. The affidavit further sets out that Miss Rauch knew that Luzader was a married man shortly after she had become acquainted with him, and at no time during their acquaintance did he [illegible] desire to marry her.

The [illegible] affidavits, together with other evidence will be produced at the investigation, called for Saturday evening by the Mayor and Police Commissioners.

Luzader paid over the money to Miss Rauch Friday. The officer claims that a sister of Miss Rauch was instrumental in making his relations with Miss Rauch public.

The wife of Officer Luzader is prostrated over the affair.

One other correction:

I've seen Mary Ebersole Fagley's birthplace misstated. I don't know if you have the correct info on her, but she was born September 24, 1875, in Manhattan, Riley County, Kansas. She died April 5, 1934, in Ft. Thomas, Campbell County, Kentucky. She came from a family of staunch Yankees and Underground Railroaders, while she married James William Terrill, who came from a family of staunch Confederates. My guess is that is what broke up their marriage.

MONROE INSTITUTE. (Monroe Township, Monroe County, Missouri)

This institution of learning is looked upon by the people of Monroe City with just pride. It was built almost contemporaneously with the founding of the town, and has continued to bestow its benefits and privileges from the date of its existence to the present time, with the exception of a short interval during the war of 1861. The institute building is a two-story brick with basement, and contains 24 rooms; it was erected in 1860 by a joint stock company, the stock being divided into 113 shares, which were taken at $50 each. In 1882, when Prof. A. Wood Terrill became principal. Under his supervision the school has greatly prospered, there being about 100 pupils in attendance during the scholastic year of 1883-84. Prof. Terrill and his wife are widely and favorably known as accomplished teachers and are doing a grand and noble work for those who are placed under their tuition. The present term of the school opened September 2, 1884. In addition to the course in the scientific department of this school there is a classical course. The school has no endowment, but depends upon the patronage of the public for its support and maintenance.

Prof. A. Wood Terrill, who was responsible for the greatest development of the institution. Under his guidance the enrollment was increased and the scope of study broadened. In the year 1883-84 more than 100 'students were enrolled. In 1886 the institution was leased to the Rev. J. S. Dingle who conducted it one year and then turned over its management to Mrs. M. H. Hubbs of Macon. Mrs. A. Wood Terrill returned to Monroe City about 1890 and attempted to build up the institute. She was assisted by W. J. Marr. The task was too great. Public education was making rapid progress and citizens of the community were losing interest in private institutions.

Under the guidance of Prof. Terrill, a music department was developed by Miss Bettie Hopper of Hopkinsville, Ky. Art classes and a business course were also introduced by Prof. Terrill. Members of the faculty for the 1884-1885 term, the zenith year for the Institute, were: Prof. A. Wood Terrill, A. M., mathematics, physics and German; Mrs. Terrill, MA., history, English and philosophy; R. Manning Walker, AM., Greek and Latin; Miss Betty Hopper, vocal and instrumental music; Miss Ettie Jones, drawing and painting; Miss Callie White, principal of the preparatory department.

Wayland Families in 17th Century Missouri

John T Wayland Jr. #40683 Culpeper PL R.929.2 Way

The children of Eli and Josephine Runyan Wayland were:

B ~~98~~ Lavinia C. Wayland, b. Mar. 13, 1847, d. Nov. 24, 1928 (from tombstone near Eli). She m. Thomas E. Brummall and had two dtrs., Armeda and Thella, who are believed to have died in childhood. Thomas was b. Jan. 11, 1834 and died Aug. 29, 1871, according to his stone next to his wife. In the 1870 Chariton Co., Missouri census, p. 3 of the Salisbury Township, is found: Thomas Brummall, age 32, occupation lawyer, born in Kty.; Lavina, age 22; and Armeda, age 1. In the 1880 census, Lavinia is living with Eli, as indicated above. "Aunt Veeny", as she was known to my grandfather, Lloyd, was a widow for 57 yrs. and a frequent and welcome house guest in his home. My father tells of his being taken to the county fair by her as a child (about 1915), and the attraction of her in her old-fashioned clothes almost outdrew the fair! (She always dressed in formal full-length black widow's garb, with veil, etc.)

B ~~99~~ Arrena (Arrah, Arra, Rena, etc.) Wayland, b. 1849 (census). Named after Eli's mother, she married S.B. Gilliland and was living in Monroe City at the time of Eli's death, as was Eli. In the 1880 Chariton Co., Mo. census, p. 44 of the Salisbury Township, she is located next to her father, Eli, and her sister, Rebecca Terrill. Her husband is listed as age 33, occupation, "Mfgr. of Hay Stackers". This latter would indicate that he had an interest in the business run by Eli and his son, Henry (see below). S.B. is born in Iowa, with parents born in Ohio. Only other family member is Rena Gilliland, age 29, wife (actually was 31). Descendants are unknown.

B ~~100~~ Rebecca Wayland, b. Aug. 30, 1851, d. June 1, 1910, according to her stone next to Eli. She married Anderson Wood Terrill, who became president of Hardin College in Mexico, Mo., and was born Dec. 21, 1850 and d. May 8, 1899, according to his stone. Rebecca is counted twice in the 1870 census, as she was counted in Eli's household (see above) and also counted when the censustaker came around to the boarding school where she was being tutored. She is found as "R. Wayland", age 19 female, on p. 61 of the Saltspring township, Randolph Co., Missouri 1870 census, along with Bell Jackson (who later married her half-brother Henry) and John Fort (Bell's half-brother). Bell is listed as age 18 and John as age 16. They are in the household of J.C. Shafer, along with two teachers. Both Bell and John are also counted twice in this census, as will be seen under the section on Henry H., following. In the 1880 Chariton Co., Missouri census is found: A.W. Terrill age 29, occupation schoolteacher, born in Mo., with both parents born in Kty.; Rebecca Terrill, age 27 (was 29), also schoolteacher, with a newborn (unnamed) infant son, listed as born May of 1880 (this is Charles Lacy Terrill..see below).

A. Wood Terrill's grandfather was Robert Terrill, who was my grandmother Anne C. Terrill's (wife of B 163) great grandfather, so the Terrills intermarried with the Waylands more than once. It is not known if Wood and Rebecca had any children to survive childhood, but they have four who died early deaths buried next to them, where they lay next to Eli Wayland:

~~1~~. Ada Terrill, d. Nov. 19, 1874, age 6 mons.
~~2~~. Unnamed infant son, d. July 1, 1875
~~3~~. Charles Lacy Terrill, b. May of 1880, and d. Oct. 12, 1892, according to his stone.
~~4~~. Everene W. Terrill, b. Oct. 31, 1882 and d. Aug. 31, 1905, unmarried at age 22.

B ~~1~~01 Ada Wayland, b. Dec. 1, 1865, d. Aug. 13, 1874, is buried next to Josephine and Eli (see p. 37). The stone was photographed by me in Oct. of 1980, and states that she is the "daughter of E. and J.R. Wayland" and died on the above date, "age 18 yrs., 8 mos., and 13 ds.", from which I deducted the approximate date of birth given above. Apparently unmarried and without issue.

B 102 James W. Wayland, b. June 18, 1857, d. Mar. 4, 1919, from the stone in a separate section of the Salisbury City Cemetary, which I have a photo of. Buried next to him is Eva Shannon Wayland, his presumed wife, b. Nov. 6, 1861, d. Mar. 26, 1909 (from stone). I have been unable so far to document any children for this marriage, but feel sure that there were some. In the section on his half-brother, Henry H., following, an obituary on Henry is quoted which states that Henry was an uncle to Mrs. R.Y. Hunker and Mrs. McNutt Welch and Miss Dorothy Wayland of Salisbury. As the children of the other siblings are well known for the most part, or lived elsewhere, I believe that these three women were dtrs. of James. I do not believe that he had any sons, as the Wayland name has died out in the Salisbury area. Buried next to James and his wife is Wayland Hunker, b. Mar. 27, 1912, d. Apr. 3, 1912, who was probably infant son of his dtr., Mrs. R.Y. Hunker, and his namesake. In my trip in Oct. of 1980, I visited a Mr. Hunker who presently owns and operates the only general store in Roanoke, Mo., just south of Salisbury. He said that he was kin to the Waylands, but I couldn't determine just how, as he didn't have much time to talk. He was nice enough to carry me out to the Roanoke City Cemetary and show me William's grave. I would be willing to bet that he and I have a common ancestor in Eli, with me being descended from Henry and he from Henry's half-brother, James's dtr., who married R.Y. Hunker. Mr. Hunker told me that the Hunkers came to Missouri from Germany, and said that the deed to his land has the name of "C. Wayland" on it. This is probably Cecil Wayland, who inherited the land from his father, William, who settled Roanoke and had the first gen. store there (see preceding on William..B 55..pp. 30-32).

The children of Marvin and Ida Wayland were:

B 202 Anna Lee Wayland. No other information

B 203 Betty Lou Wayland. Whereas Anna above was probably named after Marvin's mother, Betty Lou was probably named after his sister. In the Mt. Pleasant Cemetary, located one mile north of New Franklin on Hwy 5, is a stone for a "Bettie Lou Wayland", with dates 1907-1932, indicating she died young and unmarried. She is buried next to her father's uncle, Joseph R. Wayland (A 145), see p. 28 of this book.

SEVENTH GENERATION ----- CENTRAL MISSOURI

B 163 LLOYD LOWRY WAYLAND (Henry, Eli, Henry, Henry, John, Thomas)

Lloyd was my grandfather, and I remember talking with him about the family history on many occasions before his death just prior to his 95th birthday. He was born Dec. 11, 1872 and died Dec. 7, 1967. He was married on June 27, 1901 (see marriage index) to Anne Calvin Terrill, who ?. was b. Nov. 9, 1873 and d. Feb. 19, 1956. Anne was the dtr. of John Robert Terrill (b. Nov. 9, 1829, d. Dec. 11, 1911) and Anne Roberts (b. Feb. 25, 1839, d. Nov. 9, 1873). I have the geneaology on this Terrill line with all of the names clear back to 800 A.D., if anyone is interested. The Terrills came from the same part of Virginia as the Waylands and also came via Kentucky. John R. Terrill lost two brothers fighting for the Confederacy: James B. Terrill who was killed serving with Gen. Sterling Price, and Robert Green Terrill who was killed serving with Gen. Morgan in Kty. Another brother, Arthur Parker Terrill received a severe foot wound and walked with a limp forever after (although he became a successful banker). John R. Terrill's father's brother, Benjamin Terrill had a dtr., Mary Terrill, who m. William Quayle. The Wm. Quayle and John R. Terrill families were closer than most relatives, and are found together on the 1880 Randolph Co., Missouri census, on p. 5 and 7 of the Sugar Creek Township. William's son, Charles Quayle, b. Sept. 15, 1867 was later Chief of Police in Moberly, and his dtr., Mary graduated in the 1910 class of Moberly High School with Omar Bradley, and later was the first wife of this five star general and hero of WW II. The five sons of John R. Terrill served as pallbearers for their boyhood pal, Charley Quayle, upon his death on Nov. 4,

1902, which occured at his home of natural causes, while he was serving his third elected term as sheriff. These five Terrill brothers were, of course, brothers of my grandmother, Anne Terrill. Another indication of the closeness of the Quayle and Terrill families is the fact that Mary Quayle (later to be Gen. Bradley's wife) served as a frequent babysitter for my father, as he well remembers. He also remembers the young Omar Bradley bouncing him on his knee, while courting Mary. Lloyd Wayland and Charles Quayle lived only a block apart. Another interesting note is that Anne Roberts (who m. John R. Terrill) had a brother, John S. Roberts, who m. on Oct. 9, 1856 in Randolph Co., to Sarah Ann (Sallie) Terrill, sister of John R. Terrill. The Terrill line originates in Normandy and can be traced at least as early as the year 865. Sir Walter Tyrrell came with William the Conqueror and fought in the Battle of Hastings in 1066. His grandson, Walter III, killed the king of England, William Rufus. The following Terrill line in England was all nobility (a dastardly Terrill relative is mentioned in Shakespeare), up until the first Terrill came to Va. prior to 1657./

Lloyd Wayland, to get back to the subject of this sketch, attended William Jewell College in Missouri, but did not finish, as he was needed to help in the family businesses. He held many jobs and owned several businesses of his own, including a bakery in Moberly, and also was Moberly City Clerk for awhile. He was a stock broker at the time of 1929 crash, losing all of his own fortune at that time. As he was age 57 at the time, he never recovered financially, but seemed to take this philosophically.

During World War II, Lloyd went back to work to aid the war effort in a factory as a machinist, a trade he learned in his father's factory as a boy. Even though he was age 70, they were glad to get him, due to the war shortage. He told me that the other workers griped about the fact that he was out-producing them considerably and making them look bad. Granddad never knew how to do less than his best, and wanted to help the war effort, so was in a quandary. He was saved by a sympathetic foreman, who let "Pop" (as they all called him) produce what he wanted and the foreman lay some aside for credit against a time when he was not feeling well and producing less, satisfying the union (although this time may have never come).

Grandad was fiercely independent and lived by himself up until a couple of years before his death, in the same big house he raised his children in. He used to fly by himself to visit his children all over the country, causing the airline stewardesses to fuss over him (as he was over 90) which he enjoyed. He cooked all of his own meals, cleaned house, etc., and one time I got after him for not hiring a live-in housekeeper. He replied that Moberly was a small town, and had a lot of gossips (he was over 90 at the time!). About the same time, he confided to me that he had fallen at home and broken his finger, and had set it himself (it looked a little crooked), rather than go to a doctor. He avoided doctors as he was afraid that he would be put in a nursing home. He dreaded this more than anything else and didn't live long after it became necessary to go to one. He was an independent man, without a doubt, and he was blessed with a sharp, clear mind to the last, being of considerable help to me in this genealogy venture.

B 204 Annabelle Wayland, b. July 24, 1902 and d. Dec. 15, 1970. Married on April 9, 1933 to Sam Brown Armstrong, son of Frank Armstrong and Ida Brown, who was b. July 20, 1902 and d. Sept. 6, 1970. B 205 John Terrill Wayland, b. Mar. 2, 1907, m. on Aug. 8, 1932 to Eunice Fowler, who was b. Sept. 29, 1905. I have genealogy information on the Fowler, Chittenden, and Cole lines for many generations, as Eunice was an eleventh generation Connecticut resident, and the last of her Fowler line. John graduated from William Jewell College in Mo., Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kty., and received his PhD from Yale Divinity School in New Haven, Conn. (where he met Eunice). He was a chaplain in the Navy in WW II, serving aboard a cruiser, a Baptist minister in several churches, and later a professor at the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, N.C. He presently continues to work as associate pastor of the First Baptist Church of North Wilkesboro, N.C., as well as filling in at other churches and teaching at the local community college. Both John and Eunice reside now at Rt. 1, Moravian Falls, N.C. 28654. Eunice was the dtr. of Theron Chittenden Fowler and Ella Louise Cole of New Haven, Conn. John and Eunice Wayland had following issue:

1. Bruce Fowler Wayland, b. May 5, 1934, married Shirley Snyder on July 5, 1962, and had one child. Bruce is self-employed and Shirley is a librarian, and they live at 8625 North 14th St., Phoenix, Arizona 85020. Their only child was:

John holds two degrees, a B.A. and a MEd from the U. of N.C. and is currently working as a Rehabilitation Counselor with the Texas Rehabilitation Commission. Following his separation from Faith in 1970, John obtained custody of their two children and raised them by himself until his marriage to Barbara (who was b. Aug. 18, 1939). The two families were then combined, Barbara also bringing two children to the marriage, Cynthia Deanne Gill, b. June 25, 1963 and Ronald Scott Gill, b. Feb. 25, 1966. There are no children from the second marriage to Barbara, but there are two from the marriage to Faith:

a. Michel O'Neal Wayland, b. Feb. 16, 1963, not John's actual son, but was adopted by John soon after marriage to his mother in 1964, and much beloved.

b. John T. Wayland III, b. Dec. 25, 1965, still living with father and stepmother, at this date.
